Media Law in Slovenia

The Author

Dr Rado Bohinc (b. 1949) graduated from the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Law (1971). He received a Master of Laws (Ljubljana, 1985) and Doctor of Law (Ljubljana, 1987). His doctoral thesis was on the relationship between property rights and corporate governance. He was appointed as an assistant professor at the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Social Sciences in 1986, and has been teaching company, securities, labour and EU law since then. He served as a Minister of Science and Technology (1992–1996) and as Minister of Internal Affairs (2000–2004) in the Slovene government. In 1999, he was a Fulbright scholar at the University of California School Of Law. In 2003, he was appointed a full-time professor at the University of Ljubljana and the University of Maribor. He is a President of the Board of Directors of the Agency for Research and Development of the Republic of Slovenia. In November 2007, he was elected rector of the University of Primorska, Slovenia. Since November 2011 he is again a full-time professor of corporate, securities and EU law at University of Ljubljana, Faculty of social sciences.

He is an author of several articles and researches on comparative company law, labour law and EU law. He is one of the authors of the Commentary on the Slovene Law on Commercial Companies, edited in 2007 and 2014. He has edited several books on company law, labour and public servants' law, corporate governance, public law entities, and other subjects. His recent book is Corporations and partnerships in Slovenia. Alphen an den Rijn: Kluwer Law International, cop. 2014, Comparative Company Law (An Overview on US and some EU Countries' corporate governance legislation, VDM Verlag, dr.
