The Emerald Tablet of Hermes

True, without falsehood, certain and most true, that which is above is as that which is below, and that which is below is as that which is above, for the performance of the miracles of the One Thing. And as all things are from the One, by the mediation of the One, so all things have their birth from this One thing by adaptation. The Sun is its father, the Moon its mother, the Wind carries it in its belly, its nurse is the Earth. This is the father of all perfection, or consummation of the whole world. Its power is integrating, if it be turned into earth.

Thou shalt separate the earth from the fire, the subtle from the gross, suavely, and with great ingenuity. It ascends from earth to heaven and descends again to earth, and receives the power of the superiors and of the inferiors. So hast the glory of the whole world; therefore let all obscurity flee before thee. This is the strong force of all forces, overcoming every subtle and penetrating every solid thing. So the world was created. Hence were all wonderful adaptations, of which this is the manner. Therefore am I called Hermes Trismegistus, having the three parts of the philosophy of the whole world. What I have to tell is completed, concerning the Operation of the Sun.

This book is dedicated to the highest imperfect reflection of the Feminine Principle I had the privilege to know, my Mother, Florence Viviana Jackson, who is now deceased. In my relationship with her, I had the opportunity to see on a daily basis the grace, dignity, compassion, humility, and strength of the feminine in physical form.

I am most grateful to the following people, for their continued support on many levels which has allowed me to carry out my purpose of making this book available to humanity:

Jennifer Anderson of Carlong Publishers: A calming and excellent editor and personality. During our brief meeting your professional knowledge of publishing was invaluable to me. I thank you.

Kevin Bradley: A wonderful friend with whom I can communicate, knowing that he understands my work and mission on this planet and is committed to assisting me in the fulfillment of my destiny.

Joye Foderingham: Your editing insights and help were invaluable. Thanks for both your editing work.

Jilaen Hinds: Thanks for your editorial contribution to this book.

Dwight Lyseight: The calm, professional and detailed manner in which you completed the layout of the book cover and adjusted the cover of my first book, made the experience easy and stress free for me. I am truly grateful and I thank you.

Ebuan Rodgers-Gates: A friend and strong supporter of what she understands to be the Divine Plan for humanity and my role in that plan.

Kathryn Riach: Thank you for volunteering your time to doing the initial editing of this book and for that I am most grateful.

Rick St. Clair: All I can say is that you are a divine gift to my work. Thank you so much.

Ron Walters: You have had an intuitive knowledge of your role in my life and endeavors regarding the publication of my books as evidenced by your remarkable and continued support and goodwill. Your inner knowing of your place in this work entrusted to me shows your true connection to the divine source.

Jacqueline Routier-von Felbert: My daughter and my companion in the long journey that began with your birth, thank you for your editorial assistance with this book as well as with my first book Understanding Your Choice.

To my sister Pauline Jackson-Thomas, whose insight into the power and purpose of this book and its significance, as intuitively communicated to her by our mother, was invaluable. Thank you also for your support in the cover design.

To my sisters and brothers Basil, Erna, Courtney, Frederick George, Janette, Pauline and Fitz, thank you for rounding out the experience with our mother, which has allowed me to see her true measure.

To my father Baldwin Eulatima Jackson who taught all his children the structure of politics and the law, civic responsibility, and how to think constructively, we are eternally grateful. Together with my mother Florence who was his perfect complement, they left their children a great legacy of awareness and concern for the
