The Author

Panayotis M. Protopsaltis was born in Athens (Greece) in 1970. He studied law at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (Greece) as well as at the I.H.E.I. of the University of Paris II (Panthéon-Assas) and at the University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne) (France) from where he holds a doctoral degree. He specializes in international investment law and has given lectures at universities, conducted research and contributed to publications on the subject. In addition to his academic work, the author is a lawyer, member of the Athens Bar Association and is regularly retained to advise intergovernmental and governmental organizations as well as private sector entities on investment related legal issues.

The author is indebted to Mr Ch. S. Bellinger, former Chief Underwriter and Director of MIGA's Representative Office in Paris, to the late Profs A.A. Fatouros and Th. Wälde and to Profs P. Juillard and Ph. Kahn for their input, comments and suggestions on the previous edition. Special thanks are also due to Mrs Ana-Mita Betancourt, Director and General Counsel and to Mrs Aradhana Kumar-Capoor, Chief Counsel of MIGA who provided valuable information as well as to Mr B. Marchais, former Lead Counsel of MIGA for his comments on the final draft of the present edition. All comments and opinions expressed are personal unless otherwise stated. All errors and omissions that cannot be reasonably attributed to someone else remain with the author.
