

CEO Branding

Theory and Practice

Edited by
Marc Fetscherin

CEO BRANDING

Theory and Practice

Edited by Marc Fetscherin

First published 2015
by Routledge
711 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017

and by Routledge
2 Park Square, Milton Park, Abingdon, Oxon OX14 4RN

Routledge is an imprint of the Taylor & Francis Group, an informa business

© 2015 Taylor & Francis

The right of Marc Fetscherin to be identified as author of this work has been asserted by him in accordance with sections 77 and 78 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reprinted or reproduced or utilised in any form or by any electronic, mechanical, or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, without permission in writing from the publishers.

Trademark notice: Product or corporate names may be trademarks or registered trademarks, and are used only for identification and explanation without intent to infringe.

Every effort has been made to reproduce all pre-published material accurately.
Please advise the publisher of any errors or omissions, and these will be corrected in subsequent editions.

Library of Congress Cataloging in Publication Data

CEO branding : theory and practice / edited by Marc Fetscherin.

pages cm

Includes bibliographical references and index.

1. Chief executive officers. 2. Branding (Marketing) 3. Corporate image.

I. Fetscherin, Marc.

HD38.2.C3765 2015

658.4'2—dc23

2014047504

ISBN: 978-1-138-01371-1 (hbk)

ISBN: 978-1-138-01372-8 (pbk)

ISBN: 978-1-315-79514-0 (ebk)

Typeset in Bembo Std
by Out of House Publishing

I dedicate this book to Stephanie, Margaux and Sushi, love forever.

FIGURES

0.1 The CEO Brand	3
0.2 Impact of CEOs on Companies	4
0.3 The 4Ps of CEO Branding Mix	5
0.4 Aspects of CEO Brand Studied	10
0.5 Chapter Overview	11
0.6 CEO Brand Construct	16
2.1 Model of CEO Brand Development	36
2.2 Product Brand and CEO Brand Development Patterns	38
2.3 CEO Brand Action Intensity Patterns and Measure Results by Brand Action	44
2.4 Siemens' CEO Image Presence in Annual Report	44
3.1 The Ascendant Group Approach to CEO Branding	52
5.1 Research Model	86
5.2 Results	91
6.1 Research Model and Hypotheses	102
7.1 The CEO RepTrak® Model	123
7.2 Modeling CEO Reputation	126
7.3 Celebrity and Reputation	128
7.4 Explaining CEO Reputation (2011) – Key Dimensions	129
9.1 The Short-Term Effects of CEO Reputation	167
9.2 Significant Long-Term Effects of CEO Reputation on Major Outcome Variables	168
9.3 The Long-Term Effects of CEO Reputation	168
10.1 Hypothesized Research Model	179
10.2 Structural Model	192

12.1 Theoretical Framework	224
12.2 An Example of Facial Width-to-Height Ratio (fWHR) Measurement	228
13.1 Where Social and Unsocial CEOs Post	241
13.2 Executive Feelings About CEO's Social Media Participation	244
13.3 Executive Description of Social and Unsocial CEOs	244
13.4 Which is More Credible and Believable?	247
13.5 CEO's Intended Audiences for Social Media	247
13.6 Reasons CEO Does Not Participate in Social Media	248
13.7 Level of Risk of CEOs Participating in Social Media Today	249
13.8 Benefits of a CEO's Participation in Social Media by CEO's Social Tenure	252
13.9 Online Platforms to which Social CEOs Post	253
14.1 Extant Literature on Succession Origin and Performance	259
14.2 Research Model	261

TABLES

1.1	Summary 5-C Model	28
2.1	Comparison of Product, Corporate and CEO Branding Characteristics	36
2.2	Profile of CEO Sample	40
2.3	Results of Wilcoxon Signed-Rank Test by Brand Action	43
3.1	Tactics to Create a Positive CEO Brand	60
3.2	CEO Branding Tactics	62
3.3	Steps for Developing and Maintaining a Corporate Brand	65
5.1	MERCO Methodology	87
5.2	Variables Summary	88
5.3	Descriptive Statistics (Average)	89
5.4	Descriptive Statistics and Correlations	90
6.1	Key Findings of Previous Research	99
6.2	Correlation Matrix	106
6.3	Estimation Effect of CEO Reputation on Corporate Reputation and Performance (n=539)	107
6.4	Estimation Effect of CEO Reputation on Corporate Reputation and Performance (2000–2007)	108
6.5	Estimation Effect of CEO Reputation on Corporate Reputation and Performance in a Crisis Context (2008–2012)	109
7.1	Attributes Driving CEO Reputation (2011)	124
7.2	The Dimensions of CEO Reputation	125
7.3	Spain's Top CEO Reputations (2010–2011)	127
7.4	The Effects of CEO Reputation on Stakeholder Support	130
8.1	CSR and Environmental Performance	139
8.2	Proportions of Directors and CEOs in the Crime and Suspected-Crime Records	147

8.3 Characteristics of Sample Firms	147
8.4 Environmental Performance and Criminal Convictions and Excessive Risk-Taking Behavior	148
9.1 Dimensions of Personal Characteristics in Literature	158
9.2 Summary Regression Analyses	166
9.3 Pairwise Comparisons Between Time Points	167
10.1 Sample Characteristics	184
10.2 EFA Summary Results	188
10.3 Correlation Matrix and Assessment of Discriminant Validity	189
10.4 Fit Statistics	189
10.5 Construct Reliability and Validity Results	190
10.6 Summary of Hypotheses	191
10.7 Controls	193
11.1 Industry Affiliation of Executives (Fama and French, 1997, 48 Industry Classifications)	207
11.2 Descriptive Statistics	209
11.3 Difference in Compensation Between Co-CEO, Co-Chairman and Co-CEO and Co-Chairman Leadership Structures	210
11.4 The Impact of Co-CEO and Co-Chairman Structure and Return to Shareholders	212
11.5 The Impact of Co-CEO and Co-Chairman Structure on Firm Performance	214
12.1 Summary of Previous Studies Examining the Relationship CEO Facial Appearance and Financial Success	222
13.1 Summary of Perceived Benefits of Engagement Channels	242
13.2 Benefits of CEO Participation in Social Media	246
13.3 Comparison CEO's Communication Styles	251
14.1 Descriptive Statistics	264
14.2 Regression Analysis of CEO Succession Origin and Performance	266
15.1 Connected Acquisitions	281
15.2 Acquisitions by Bidder and Target Industry	282
15.3 M&A Transaction Characteristics	282
15.4 Bidder Characteristics	285
15.5 Connected Bidders and Targets	287
15.6 Number of M&As	287
15.7 Takeover Success Rate	289
15.8 Means of Payment	290

CONTRIBUTORS

The chapter authors are experts from many countries, including Austria, Canada, Finland, Germany, the Netherlands, Portugal, Sweden, Spain, the UK and the US. They come from a number of different fields, including accounting, communication, economics, entrepreneurship, finance, leadership, management, marketing, psychology and strategy, reflecting the interdisciplinary nature of CEO branding.

Our academic experts are faculty members of institutions that include: Universidad de Burgos (Spain), Lehigh University (US), Umeå University (Sweden), Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (Germany), University of Oulu (Finland), University of Georgia (US), Case Western Reserve University (US), University of Valencia (Spain), Stockholm School of Economics (Sweden), University of Toronto (Canada), Tilburg University (Netherlands), Technical University Bergakademie Freiberg (Germany), Florida Institute of Technology (US), Polytechnic Institute of Viana do Castelo (Portugal), Cardiff University (UK) and Rollins College (US).

In addition to academic faculty experts, we also drew on the expertise of business practitioners. In alphabetical order, they include: Suzanne Bates, an executive coach, former award-winning television news anchor and CEO of Bates Communications (US). She is author of Speak Like a CEO, Motivate Like a CEO and Discover Your CEO Brand, all published by McGraw-Hill; Raoul Davis is CEO and partner at Ascendant Group (US), a firm that focuses on strategic branding for leaders; Charles J. Fombrun (founder and chairman), Fernando Prado and Leonard J. Ponzi all practice at the Reputation Institute (US), the world's leading reputation-based advisory firm. Their most well-known management tool is the RepTrak® model for analyzing the reputations of companies and institutions and used by Forbes in publishing the Global RepTrak® 100. Leslie Gaines-Ross is the Chief Reputation Strategist at Weber Shandwick (US), a widely recognized expert on CEO reputation, and author of CEO Capital: A Guide to Building CEO Reputation and Company Success and Corporate Reputation : 12 Steps to Safeguarding and Recovering Reputation. Andreas Hinterhuber is a partner in Hinterhuber & Partners (Austria), a consultancy specializing in strategy and leadership. His co-author, Stephane Liozu, is the founder of Value Innorruption Advisors, a firm specializing in disruptive approaches in innovation, value and leadership management. Nick Nanton and J.W. Dicks also co-authored a chapter. Nanton is an award winning director, agent, author and three-time Emmy award winner who also won the Telly Award 13 times. He has co-authored several best-selling books and is the founder and CEO of the Dicks + Nanton Celebrity Branding Agency. His co-author, J.W. Dicks, has written over 22 business books, and is the editor and publisher of Celebrity Expert® Insider Newsletter.

Below are brief notes on the editor and the authors featured in this book.

Editor

Marc Fetscherin is an Associate Professor of International Business and Marketing at Rollins College, United States. He also was a Visiting Professor at the East China University of Science and Technology (China), the Copenhagen Business School (Denmark), Jacobs University (Germany), the University of Fribourg (Switzerland) and the Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts (Switzerland). Prior to his academic career, he worked as a consultant for McKinsey & Company and was CEO of Bonfort SA, a small Swiss-based luxury company. He was also an advisor to the Swiss government as a member of the Federal Commission of Consumer Affairs. He has published numerous edited books, book chapters and journal articles. His articles have appeared in Harvard Business Review, International Business Review, Journal of Business Research, Journal of Global Marketing, International Marketing Review, European Journal of Marketing, Journal of Consumer Marketing, Journal of Brand Management, Journal of Product and Brand Management and the Journal of Business Strategy, among others. More information can be found at www.fetscherin.com.

Chapter authors

Suzanne Bates is an executive coach, author, Certified Speaking Professional (CSP), former award-winning television news anchor, and CEO of Bates Communications, Inc. The firm offers strategic communications consulting, executive coaching, workshops, and keynote speeches. Clients include Dow Chemical, Raytheon, Fidelity, EMC, Kimberly Clark, State Street and Merck. Suzanne is author of Speak Like a CEO: Secrets for Commanding Attention and Getting Results, as well as Motivate Like a CEO: Communicate Your Strategic Vision and Inspire People to Act! and Discover Your CEO Brand: Secrets for Embracing and Maximizing Your Unique Value as a Leader, three books published by McGraw-Hill that became business best-sellers on amazon.com. For 20 years, Suzanne was an acclaimed on-air personality with major market television stations WBZ-TV Boston, WCAU-TV Philadelphia and WFLA-TV Tampa-St. Petersburg. She won an AP News Award and over her career has interviewed thousands of political leaders, CEOs, authors and celebrities. Suzanne appeared in hundreds of publications including the New York Times, Forbes Magazine, Business Week, Investors' Business Daily, the New York Post, Wall St. Journal and CNNMoney.com. Suzanne has also appeared as a guest expert on Fox Business Morning, New England Cable News, CBS Radio, and dozens of other television and radio programs.

Virginia Blanco-Mazagatos is Associate Professor at Universidad de Burgos, Spain. Her research interests include family business, governance, and corporate reputation. In particular, she focuses on the challenges of governance and resource structure within the family firm, and the role of corporate reputation to the family firm performance. Dr. Blanco-Mazagatos received her PhD in business administration from Universidad de Burgos. She has published papers in Family Business Review and International Journal of Entrepreneurship and Small Business, among others.

Professor Paul Brockman holds the Joseph R. and Amy M. Perella Chair of Finance in the Perella Department of Finance at Lehigh University (USA). He has an undergraduate degree in arts and sciences from Ohio State University, an MBA from Nova Southeastern University, and a PhD in Finance from Louisiana State University. His professional qualifications include Financial Risk Manager (FRM), Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA). His academic publications have appeared in journals such as the Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial Economics, Journal of Financial and Quantitative Finance, Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of Corporate Finance and the Journal of Banking and Finance.

Raoul Davis specializes in helping companies increase their top-line revenue through a proprietary CEO branding model that helps CEOs increase their visibility with their target audience and industry status. Davis has developed a reputation for effectively setting CEOs and their companies apart from their competitors by “thinking without a box.” He has regularly contributed for Forbes.com and provided commentary on small business issues for Fox Business, American Express Open Forum, Huffington Post and Inc. Davis is a partner at Ascendant Strategy a division of Ascendant Group (www.ascendantstrategy.net), a Wilmington, Delaware based company focusing on “strategic branding for leaders” utilizing tools such as PR, speaking engagements, book deals, social media, strategic networking and developing strategic alliances to help CEOs position themselves. Davis has built a private executive client list that includes Fortune 50 executives, midsize company

CEOs at 5–100 million in revenue companies, major media personalities, and New York Times best-selling authors. Under his leadership, the company has helped clients generate significant business deals, speak at Ivy League institutions, win recognition from governors, receive invitations for White House sponsored events and secure media in the New York Times, ABC's 20/20, the Steve Harvey Morning Show and the Wall Street Journal.

Juan B. Delgado-García is Associate Professor at Universidad de Burgos, Spain. His research interests center on the role of CEO characteristics on firm outcomes, antecedents and consequences of corporate reputation, and the role of entrepreneurs' characteristics in the entrepreneurial process. Dr. Delgado-García received his PhD in business administration from Universidad de Burgos. He has published papers in the Strategic Management Journal, British Journal of Management, Corporate Governance: An International Review, Corporate Reputation Review, International Business Review and Journal of Small Business Management, among others.

J.W. Dicks, Esq. (@wicks): The nation's foremost expert on personal branding for business development, attorney, best-selling author, entrepreneur and business strategist, J.W. has been called the 'Expert to Experts,' written over 22 business books, and is editor and publisher of Celebrity Expert® Insider Newsletter. He is a director of the National Academy of Best Selling Authors® and has received an Emmy nomination as an executive producer.

Charles J. Fombrun is chairman and founder of the Reputation Institute. He is a graduate of Queen's University (Canada) and Columbia University (New York), and a former Professor of management at The Wharton School (University of Pennsylvania) and at The Stern School (NYU). Dr. Fombrun created the Reputation Institute in 1997 as a private research-based consulting firm devoted to advancing knowledge about corporate reputations and to helping companies build more sophisticated practices for reputation management. He has developed various measurement systems that are widely used by companies and countries and that are regularly featured in prominent media. Most recently, Dr. Fombrun introduced the RepTrak® System, a strategic tool for assessing corporate reputations that the Reputation Institute uses to measure corporate reputations around the world. It is the basis on which the "World's Most Respected Companies" is determined and released by Forbes each year. Dr. Fombrun has published over 100 research and professional articles. He has written six books, including the best-selling Reputation: Realizing Value from the Corporate Image (Harvard Business School Press, 1996), The Advice Business: Models and Methods of Management Consulting (Prentice Hall, 2003), Fame and Fortune: How Successful Companies Build Winning Reputations (Pearson-Financial Times, 2004), and Essentials of Corporate Communication (Routledge, 2007).

Leslie Gaines-Ross is the Chief Reputation Strategist at Weber Shandwick (USA). She is one of the world's most widely recognized experts on reputation – how reputations are built, enhanced and protected online and offline. She spearheaded the first comprehensive research on CEO reputation and its impact on company reputation and business performance. Leslie is the author of two books, CEO Capital: A Guide to Building CEO Reputation and Company Success and Corporate Reputation: 12 Steps to Safeguarding and Recovering Reputation. Before joining Weber Shandwick, Leslie was Chief Knowledge & Research Officer Worldwide at Burson-Marsteller and Marketing & Communications Director at Fortune. Leslie's work has been widely covered online and in many top-tier global publications including the Harvard Business Review, The Wall Street Journal and Financial Times. Leslie's blog can be found at reputationXchange.com and you can follow her at @ReputationRx. She can be reached at lgaines-ross@webershandwick.com.

Lars G. Hassel has a doctorate in accounting from Åbo Akademi University in Finland where he has been a Professor since 1999. In 2012 Hassel was appointed Dean of the School of Business and Economics at Umeå University in Sweden. Hassel has been working in the SRI/ESG area since 2006 as a Director of the Sustainable Investment Research Platform (SIRP) (www.sirp.se) funded by Mistra (www.mistra.org) in Sweden. The program wanted to find out how the use of sustainable investment practices can create an added value to investors, and identify barriers for such practices to become mainstream. The SIRP group was recognized with the Globe Award in May 2008 for an outstanding and tangible contribution to research in the field of CSR. SIRP launched a synthesis report of the program in 2012, "Do Sustainable Investments Add Value?" In 2011 Hassel was the chair of the PRI-Mistra academic conference on Dynamics of Responsible Investments in Sigtuna, Sweden.

Andreas Hinterhuber is a Partner of Hinterhuber & Partners (Austria), a consultancy company specialized in strategy, pricing and leadership. He is also a Visiting Professor at USI Lugano, Switzerland and was acting chair and head of the Department of International Management at Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (Germany). Previously he worked for ten years in global management positions in the chemical and pharmaceutical industry. He has published articles in Industrial Marketing Management, Long Range Planning, MIT Sloan Management Review, Journal of Strategic Marketing, and other journals. Together with Stephan Liozu he is co-editor of the book Innovation in Pricing – Contemporary Theories and Best Practices (Routledge, 2012) and The ROI of Pricing – Measuring the Impact and Making the Business Case (Routledge, 2014).

Juha-Pekka Kallunki is Professor of Financial Accounting at the University of Oulu, Finland, and a Visiting Professor of accounting at the Stockholm School of Economics, Sweden, and at Aalto University, School of Business, Finland. He teaches corporate governance, financial analysis and firm valuation at an advanced level. His research interests include financial reporting, executive compensation and corporate governance. He has published 50 original research articles in such journals as Journal of Accounting and Economics, Contemporary Accounting Research, Review of Accounting Studies, Corporate Governance: An International Review and Journal of Financial Intermediation, among others. His publication record also includes eight books published in Finland and the United States. At the moment he serves on the editorial boards of European Accounting Review, Journal of International Financial Markets, Institutions & Money and Journal of Multinational Financial Management.

Ruthann Weaver Lariscy, PhD, is Professor in the Department of Advertising & Public Relations in the Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication at the University of Georgia (USA). Dr. Lariscy's PhD is from the University of Missouri, Columbia. Her research and publications are in corporate and political public relations, political advertising and health promotion campaigns. She has authored numerous book chapters, journal articles and conference papers. Her work appears in the Journal of Advertising, Journal of Broadcasting and Electronic Media, Current Issues and Research in Advertising, Public Relations Research Journal, Public Relations Review, Journalism and Mass Communication Quarterly, Journal of Business Research, Political Communication and the Journal of Health Communication. Dr. Lariscy's research has been written about in popular press publications (New Scientist, Research Reporter) and covered in broadcast (Italian National Television, Georgia Week in Review and PBS).

Hye Seung (Grace) Lee is an Assistant Professor in the Accounting Department at Lehigh University (USA). Her research interests are mainly centered on the effects of firm-level organizational and economic characteristics on financial reporting outcomes and the effects of financial and tax reporting on capital markets. Her research has been published in the Journal of Accounting, Auditing, and Finance. She teaches both financial and managerial accounting at Lehigh. Prior to entering academia, she worked as an economic analyst in Seoul, Korea. She holds a PhD in accounting from the University of Arizona, an MBA degree from Vanderbilt University, and a BS degree in economics from Seoul Women's University in Korea.

Stephan Liozu is Assistant Professor of Management and Strategy at Chatham University (USA). He is also the founder of Value Innorruption Advisors, a firm specializing in disruptive approaches in innovation, value and pricing management. He earned a PhD in Management from Case Western Reserve University, Weatherhead School of Management. His research interest focuses on pricing and value management from an organizational and behavioral perspective. Over the past four years, Mr Liozu has published academic articles in MIT Sloan Management Review, the Journal of Revenue and Pricing Management, Industrial Marketing Management, Journal of Business Strategy as well as in the Journal of Strategic Marketing. Mr Liozu has also written several articles on strategic pricing issues for the Journal of Professional Pricing and is a regular presenter at Professional Pricing Society conferences in Europe and North America as well as the Strategic Account Management Association conferences. Together with Andreas Hinterhuber he is co-editor of the books Innovation in Pricing – Contemporary Theories and Best Practices (Routledge, 2012) and The ROI of Pricing – Measuring the Impact and Making the Business Case (Routledge, 2014).

Antonia Mohedano-Suanes has a PhD in economics and is an Associate Professor at the University of Valencia (Spain). Her research focuses on topics related to CEO reputation, firm reputation, strategic alliances, innovation and corporate entrepreneurship. Her contributions have been presented in international and national conferences such as the International Network of Business & Management Journals, International Conference in Organizational, Learning Knowledge and Capabilities, Global Conference on Business and Finance or ACEDE. She has published in international and national journals, including Dirección y Organización, Economía Industrial, Revista de Economía Mundial, Universia Business Review and The Services Industries Journal. She is currently working on projects that explore the relationship between organizational design and technological and non-technological innovation.

Nick Nanton is a three-time Emmy Award winning director, producer and filmmaker and is known as the Top Agent to Celebrity Experts® around the world for his role in developing and marketing business and professional experts, through personal branding, media, marketing and PR. Nick serves as the CEO of the Dicks + Nanton Celebrity Branding Agency, an international branding and media agency with more than 2,200 clients in 33 countries. Nick has worked with Steve Forbes, Brian Tracy, Jack Canfield, Michael E. Gerber, Tom Hopkins, Dan Kennedy and others. Nick has co-authored 34 best-selling books, including the Wall Street Journal best-seller, StorySelling™. He has been seen in USA Today, the Wall Street Journal, Newsweek, BusinessWeek, Inc. Magazine, the New York Times, Entrepreneur® Magazine, Forbes, FastCompany.com and appeared on ABC, NBC, CBS and FOX television affiliates around the country, as well as E!, CNN, FOX News, CNBC, MSNBC and hosts his own series on the Bio! channel, Portraits of Success. Nick is a voting member of the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (home to the Grammys), the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (home to the Emmys) and the National Academy of Best-Selling Authors.

Henrik Nilsson joined Stockholm School of Economics (Sweden) in 2010 and is currently Professor of Financial Accounting and Head of the SSE MSc Finance & Accounting master specialization in accounting and financial management. He received his PhD in accounting from Umeå University in 2003 and has also been working at Stockholm University. Henrik teaches accounting and financial statement analysis at undergraduate and graduate levels. He is a member of the Sustainable Investment Research Platform (SIRP) research group that was recognized with the Globe Award in May 2008 for an outstanding and tangible contribution to research in the field of Corporate Social Responsibility. His research has been published in top-tier journals such as the Journal of Accounting and Economics, Review of Accounting Studies and Contemporary Accounting Review.

Leonard J. Ponzi is Managing Partner of Research and Analytics at the Reputation Institute, a research-based consulting firm for which he oversees group operations, product development and global research. Leonard has over 20 years of multi-industry experience and a unique blend of qualitative and analytical research. Prior to joining the Reputation Institute in 2006, Leonard was a senior research director for GfK managing clients interested in improving customer satisfaction and loyalty, entering new markets, developing new products and conducting competitive analyses. He has conducted research in a wide range of industries such as automotive, consumer packaged goods, pharmaceutical, publishing, travel, and hardware and software manufacturing. Leonard earned his MBA at Syracuse University and holds a PhD from Long Island University. He has been an adjunct faculty member for ten years at City of New York University, Baruch College and Pace University where he taught graduate courses in marketing, market research and consumer behavior. He has been a speaker at a number of international conferences and has written various publications on management and statistics.

Fernando Prado is Managing Partner for Spain and Latin America at the Reputation Institute, where he also heads the Place Reputation Group, a unit specializing in the development of place branding strategies for countries, regions and cities. From 1997–2006, he worked for WPP Group in various roles as Director of Strategic Planning for J. Walter Thompson in Madrid, as Brand Strategy Consultant for WPP New York, as Global Coordinator of BRANDZ for Millward Brown in Chicago, and as a member of OgilvyOne in New York and of Bassat Ogilvy & Mather in Madrid. He was Managing Partner at Kantya, a consultancy specializing in corporate positioning that he founded in 2001 where he developed brand positions for many of the largest companies in Spain in financial services, telecommunications, utilities, food and beverage, transportation, and leisure industries. Fernando has developed various award-winning advertising and brand strategies, including a Grand Prix in Spain for work done for BBVA (Grand Prix on brand management – ESADE 2005) and for work done for Viajes Iberia (Grand Prix on advertising effectiveness – AEA 2002). He is a member of the expert advisory group for the ‘Brand Spain’ project. Fernando is a graduate of ICADE (Madrid) and Middlesex University (London), and has an MBA from IESE (Barcelona).

Esther de Quevedo-Puente is an Associate Professor at Universidad de Burgos, Spain. Her research interests focus on the antecedents and consequences of corporate reputation, and the resource structure and corporate governance of family firms. She received her PhD in business administration from Universidad de Burgos. She has published papers in the British Journal of Management, Corporate Governance: An International Review, Corporate Reputation Review and Family Business Review, among others.

Daniel Re, PhD, is a postdoctoral fellow in the Social Perception and Cognition Lab in the Department of Psychology at the University of Toronto (Canada), funded by a fellowship from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC). Dr. Re received his PhD at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland in 2013 under the supervision of David I. Perrett and his MSc at McMaster University under the supervision of Dr. David R. Feinberg. His research focuses on the facial cues involved in the perception of leadership ability and its relation to leader selection. He has published widely on this topic and key findings to date include the discovery of physical face dimensions that drive leadership selection. He specializes in the application of computer-based methods for the manipulation of faces to experimentally determine the ways in which precise aspects of facial features can influence how individuals are perceived. His current research examines social attributions made from faces of real-life political and business leaders and how these relate to leadership selection and success.

Luc Renneboog is Professor of Corporate Finance at Tilburg University (Netherlands) and Director of Graduate Studies at the Center for Economic Research; he is also Visiting Professor at Cambridge University. Before joining Tilburg, Renneboog was at the University of Leuven and Oxford University. He was also a Visiting Professor at the London Business School, HEC Paris, Venice University, University Paris-Dauphine, University of Cardiff and European University Institute (Florence). He has graduated from the University of Leuven with an MSc in commercial engineering and with a BA in philosophy, from the University of Chicago with an MBA, and from the London Business School with a PhD in financial economics. He is also a research member of Center for Economic Research, TILEC (Tilburg Law and Economics Center) and ECGI (European Corporate Governance Institute). His research interests are corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, law and economics, ethical/socially responsible investing, and alternative investments (such as art, diamond markets). On these topics, he has published in the Journal of Finance, Management Science, American Economic Review, Journal of Financial Intermediation, Journal of Law and Economics, Journal of Corporate Finance, Strategic Management Journal, Journal of Banking and Finance, Cambridge Journal of Economics, Oxford Review of Economic Policy, and others.