The Author

Ioannis Iglezakis is an Associate Professor of Law & Informatics at the School of Law in the Aristotle University in Thessaloniki (Greece) and an Attorney-at-law at the Thessaloniki Bar Association. He is Director of the Department of History, Philosophy and Sociology of Law in the academic year 2016–2017. He was also elected as a Member of the Office of the Dean of the School of Law of Thessaloniki (until 31 August 2017)

Professor Iglezakis was scientific assistant in the Faculty of Law at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (2002–2003) and subsequently, he assumed the position of Visiting Lecturer (2003–2009). In 2009, he was elected Assistant Professor, while in 2014 he received tenure, and in 2015 he was elected Associate Professor.

He received his Ph.D. from the University of Thessaloniki in 1999 with a dissertation on Legal Expert Systems (summa cum laude), and his thesis was published in 2000. He obtained a law degree at the University of Thessaloniki (1987), and Master's degrees from the University of Thessaloniki (1992) and the University of Hannover, Germany (1993). In the academic year 2003–2004, he conducted postdoctoral research in the area of data protection law.

He is widely published in Greece and has various publications in international legal reviews. His research interests include I.T. law, legal informatics, media law, economic and EU law. He is a member of the editorial team of Greek legal journals and has also edited several books published in English (Legal and Socioeconomic Aspects of Intrusion, IGI (2009); E-Publishing and Digital Libraries: Legal and Organizational Issues, IGI (2010); Values and Freedoms in Modern Information Law & Ethics. Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Information Law and Ethics (2011); Proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Information Law and Ethics (2015); Cyberlaw in Greece, Kluwer Law International (2015); Legal Regulation of Cyber Attacks, Kluwer Law International (2016); Digital Tools for Computer Production and Distribution, IGI Publishing (2016).

The Author

He has worked in several EU-funded projects related to Information and e-commerce law and EU commercial, intellectual property, data protection, consumer protection and comparative law, including hands-on experience in conducting legal gap analysis and/or supporting the transposition of EU directives into national legislation in the EU pre-accession context, as well as in framework of EU-internal support projects. He was a partner in the EU-funded project ‘Greek Cybercrime Center’ (<http://www.cybercc.gr/>), which is a national project with the task to improve research and education in the field of cybercrime (2013–2015). Currently, he is a member of the Advisory Committee of the Reveal Project (<http://revealproject.eu/>) and an External Ethics, data security and privacy advisor in the TraMOOC consortium (<http://tramooc.eu/>). He also serves as a consultant in the EU-project ‘Monitoring and Detecting OnLine Hate Speech (Mandola)’ <http://mandola-project.eu/>.
