The Principal's hopes

As history has entered a new era,
Tangshan No. 1 High School greets its 100th anniversary.

In the past century,
the history of China's secondary education has witnessed the school's great contribution to the development of science and education and the rejuvenation of its motherland and how it strived perseveringly
for the independence and liberation of the country.

Looking back, the people of the school
feel an upsurge of emotion;
and looking into the future,
they are full of confidence.
They will deepen their reforms, open up new paths,
and make greater progress
under the guidance of the Party's policy for education and with the driving force of the 21st century
and the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the school.
The school initiates students into such requirements as “character be self-moulded, intelligence be self-developed and body and mind be self-disciplined” to bring up more talents who are bold in bringing forth new ideas and putting new ideas into practice
to meet the need of the country's development.
May our school a nicer and brighter future!

A survey of the school

Tangshan No. 1 High school, founded in 1902, is one of the earliest middle schools in modern Chinese history and the old school of Li Dazhao, great pioneer of Chinese communist movement. It is a senior high school with three grades and 48 classes; its present total enrolment is 2800 students. As one of the first-batch key schools of the province, the school, well-known for its rich resources of qualified teachers and conscientious students, large proportion of students entering colleges and universities and high education quality, has repeatedly been commended by the State Ministry of Education, and the provincial and municipal authorities. It is also renowned as a "cradle of university students" in Tangshan.

Equipped with almost all necessary education facilities, it has excellent teaching and learning conditions. It has been named a technologically experimental school in modern education by the state Ministry of Education and a national experimental base of quality education by the Central Education Research Institute and also Chairman of Hebei Branch, National Middle School Education Research Association. Enjoying great social prestige, it never loosens up its exchanges and always share educational thoughts and experiences with schools and educators at home and abroad. In recent years, besides many school delegations from mainland China, who came to visit and observe classes, it has also received educational delegations from the USA, Japan, Britain, Sweden, Australia, Hongkong, Macao and Taiwan. It has established relationships with some dozens of key high schools at home and Rideau High School, Ottawa, Canada and Port Angeles High School, Washington, USA.

Tangshan No. 1 High School is now marching forward along the road of "facing modernization, facing the world and facing the future" and making great effort to build itself into a first-rate school in China. Its glorious history betokens a brighter future. Mounting the rays of good hope, the school will advance towards a new glory.

沧桑百年 光荣曲折的历史

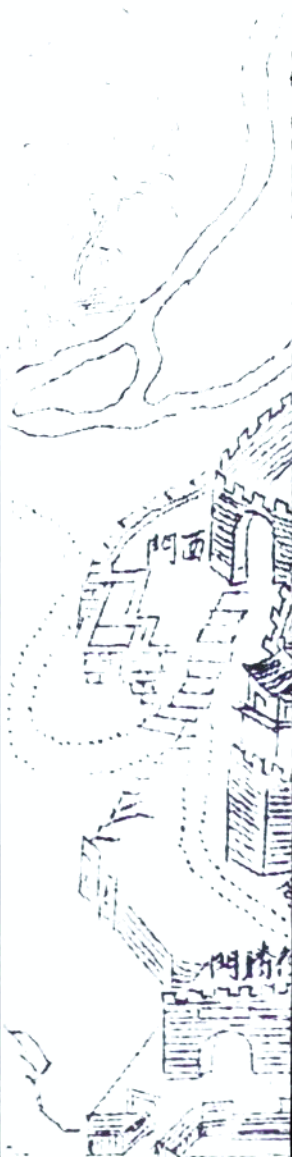

唐山一中始建于清朝末年，是中国近代最早的中等学校之一。100年中她三次搬迁，多次改制，历尽时代的风雨。1976年震惊中外的大地震使学校建筑和设备在瞬间化为一片废墟，师生伤亡近三分之一。但是，曲折使她更加成熟，灾难孕育了新的崛起和奋进。

One hundred years time brings great changes to the school—a glorious but tortuous history

Tangshan No. 1 High School, Hebei Province is one of the earliest middle schools in modern Chinese history. Founded in the last years of the Qing Dynasty, the school has gone through various hardships and changes over the 100 years. It moved three times; its school system was changed several times. The 1976 Tangshan earthquake destroyed all the school buildings and facilities in a few seconds and killed nearly one third of the teachers and students. But difficulties rendered it more mature; disasters gave birth to its new striving and attainments.
