Jia Youfu was born in Suning County, Hebei Province in 1942. He is now an associate professor at the Central Academy of Fine Arts and member of the Chinese Artists' Association. When he was young, he learned the rudiments of painting from Li Xiuchen and Zhu Lian. In 1960, he entered the Central Academy of Fine Arts, specializing in landscape painting. He has taken the Taihang Mountains as the source of his inspiration for the creation of his paintings and visited the region more than 20 times, leaving his footprints all over the Taihang Mountains in Hebei, Henan and Shanxi provinces.

A Collection of Jia Youfu's Works has been published in different editions by the Hebei Fine Arts Publishing House, Hong Kong's Da Ye Book Corp., the Henan Fine Arts Publishing House, the Shanxi People's Publishing House, the Sichuan Fine Arts Publishing House, Beijing's Rong Bao Zhai Studio, Hong Kong's Rong Bao Zhai Co. Ltd and Taiwan's Lion Book Corp.

Jia's works have been exhibited in the United States, France, Japan, South Korea, the Soviet Union, India, Canada, Singapore, Hong Kong and Taiwan. South Korea has organized an exhibition of Jia Youfu's paintings and published A Collection of Jia Youfu's Paintings. Taiwan's Lion Art Gallery has sponsored Jia's shows two times and Lion Arts has published An Album of Jia Youfu's Works. The Chinese Artists' Association has held an exhibition of Jia Youfu's paintings in the China Art Gallery and the Central Academy of Fine Arts has also given a show of his works in its exhibition hall.

His works appeared in Basel International Expo and on the Bagdad International Plastic Arts Festival. He has received several awards, including the silver medal at the Sixth National Art Exhibition, the top prize at the Beijing International Ink-and-Wash Exhibition '88, and a prize for his ink-and-wash works at the Beijing International Art Exhibition. In 1991, Taiwan's Dunhuang Art Center published The Call of the Mountain-Jia Youfu's Artistic World.
