畫家像 Zhang Jianzhong

張建中先生，1929年生於山東省高密縣。自幼習畫，數十年來對藝術執着追求，對黃山的熱愛，他遍覽了明末清初形成的黃山畫派的作品，研讀了先輩的筆墨，收集有關黃山的史料，潛心揣摩，數十次登臨黃山，足跡遍及七十二峯，在危崖險谷中遨遊，在飛瀑流泉間留連，使他深刻認識到黃山的奇偉壯觀，在他筆端所出的黃山，無論是山、是水、是雲、是石，應手隨意，參悟造化，使其作品意氣縱橫，氣勢磅礴。

Mr. Zhang Jiangzhong was born in Gaomi County, Shandong Province in 1929. He started to learn painting from childhood. For dozens of years, he has adhered to his profound love of Huangshan Mountain, studied the works of the painters of the Huangshan painting school rising around the mid-1600s, and collected historical materials of Huangshan Mountain. He has also visited Huangshan for dozens of times, leaving his footprints on all of the 72 peaks and ridges. He climbed up precipitous cliffs, frequented secluded valleys, and lingered about waterfalls and springs. The magnificent landscape of Huangshan has nourished his inspiration of art. Mountain peaks, waters, clouds and rocks, all look in their majesty under his brush.

His works have been displayed many times in exhibitions in the countries and regions of Europe, America and Asia. He has visited the United States, Britain, France and Germany and given lectures and one-man shows.

Mr. Zhang is now one of the representative painters of the Huangshan school, the first Chinese member of the UN International Artistic Education Association, lifelong honorary president of the American Chinese Society, president of the Huangshan Society of Painting, president of the Huangshan Academy of Painting and Calligraphy, a first-class artist and vice chairman of the Anhui Artists' Association.
