In most of my encounters with design students, I see enthusiasm and lots of motivation, but only rarely do I see a real passion for design. That's what I remember most about the senior thesis year 1989 and my experiences as teacher and mentor for Jonny Lam, was his passion for good design. In that particular problem each student selects his or her own program and the setting for the problem, and with faculty oversight, students will eventually present their solution to a jury of design professionals.

Jonny selected the open atrium of a large Hawaiian hotel as his setting, and renovated it to become a lush interior lobby complete with a fine dining restaurant which overlooked a interior lake and two story waterfall. His program also included the interior design of two standard suites within the upper floors of the hotel. The project was both ambitious and difficult. The resulting design and presentation resulted in his first hotel design employment with Hirsch Bedner Associates, an internation—ally notable design firm.

Since that time I have been able to follow Jonny's career during visits to China. I have seen projects "on the board", projects under construction, and completed projects. His pas—sion for good design is still clearly in evidence.

Jonny possesses an ability that is somewhat rare among designers. He not only visualizes and conceives his design solutions clearly but is able to share his vision with others. His design process drawings are clear and "open", they are non—intimidating. They depict the ideas clearly yet still possess a not finished quality which keeps design teams as well as clients engaged as participants in the design process. I always have the feeling that I am looking at the very latest and best version of the design to date.

Jonny has joined his gift of freehand drawing and rendering with the computer and this combination has brought his work to a new level, yet still maintains the openness and clarity of his earlier work without expressing the cartoon like look of most computer drawings.

I am pleased to be included with all who can now share in and be inspired by the work which Jonny continues to produce.

在我所遇到的大多数设计系学生 中,他们是热衷于学习并积极主动的, 但是只有极少数的学生能真正对设计 拥有热情。在1989年,当我身为林振 翔的毕业作品指导教授时, 我对于他 追求完美设计的热情与执着留下深刻 的印象。在教授们的监督下,学生们需 设定自己的毕业作品主题,发现和解 决问题,并最终呈现他们的设计。

振翔的毕业作品是将一个夏威夷 旅馆的中庭改建成豪华的餐厅。这个 餐厅可俯瞰一个人工湖及两层楼高的 瀑布。他的设计方案还包括两个标准的 楼上套房。由于这个大胆且有难度的设 计,他从一家国际知名的 Hirsch Bender公司获得了第一份酒店设计的 工作。

从那时开始,随着振翔的事业发 展,我在中国之旅的这段期间,看到了 许多他的作品从设计建造, 到最后完 成,再一次证明了他追求完美设计的热 情与坚持。

振翔是少数拥有丰富想像力并能 明确传达他的设计理念的设计师,而且 他乐于将自己的观点与别人分享。他明 确的草图使工作团队和客户能参与整 个设计的流程。每当我见到他的设计, 我总认为这就是目前最新、最好的。他 的绘图技巧融合了手绘和计算机绘图 的不同特点,将作品带入新的层次,并 且仍保持设计理念的开阔和清晰。

对于所有可以分享他的作品和受 到启发的读者们,我很高兴能参与振翔 的新书出版。

序 2

Shining from ten years hard work

I am honor to write the preface for Jonny Lam's new book.

I met Jonny Lam in 1989, when he was a student in the Architectural interior Department at California State University. Jonny was working on his graduation project which was also the project that I was in charge of at HBA. I was his adviser and provided feedback of his design.

Jonny was a quiet young man with great talent, he expressed his idea by drawings rather than words. I could tell his design potential from his sketches which already were outstanding while he was a student. Howard Hirsch and I were impressed with his design in the graduation project.

After graduation, Jonny joined HBA and became a member of my team. Within a few years, he grew rapidly and turned out to be a welll—rounded designer. Other than hand sketches, he is also very skill—ful with working drawing and CAD. Soon he started to handle projects by himself. Jonny joined my own company later on and we did some nice projects together. Jonny returned to China to form his hotel design company. He invited me to join effort for projects in China.

With years experience in hotel design, Jonny is ready to grow in China. I see a bright future for him and wish him the best.

Howard Hirsch and I were impressed with his design in the graduation project.

十年磨一剑——写给林振翔新书的序

Terry Henriksen 与林振翔在讨论设计方案

知道林准备出书已经有一段时间了,没 有想到他邀请我为他的新书写序, 我当然十 分高兴。

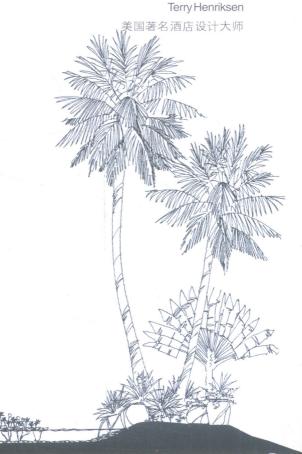

我不得不感叹时间的飞逝。那是1989 年,林在美国加州长滩大学室内建筑设计系 学习,正在做毕业设计。毕业设计的项目其实 就是我们公司正在做的一个项目。因为我是 这个项目的负责人, 所以, 我也多次去指导了 林的毕业设计。

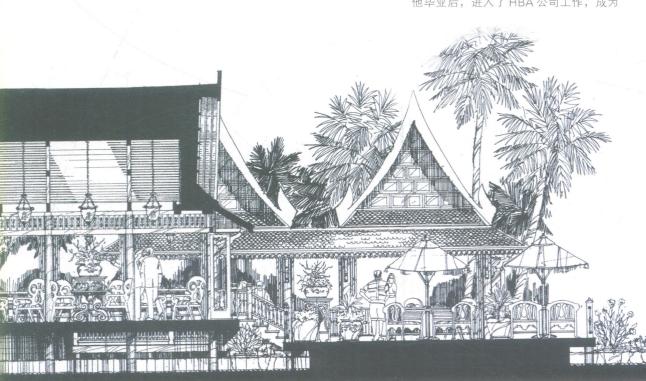

林是看上去比较沉默的年轻人, 他不会 夸夸其谈, 但他的设计天分很高。他所有的设 计语言都通过笔表达出来。他的手绘图在学 生时代就已经非常出色。他的毕业设计与众 不同,得到 Howard Hirsch 和我的赏识。

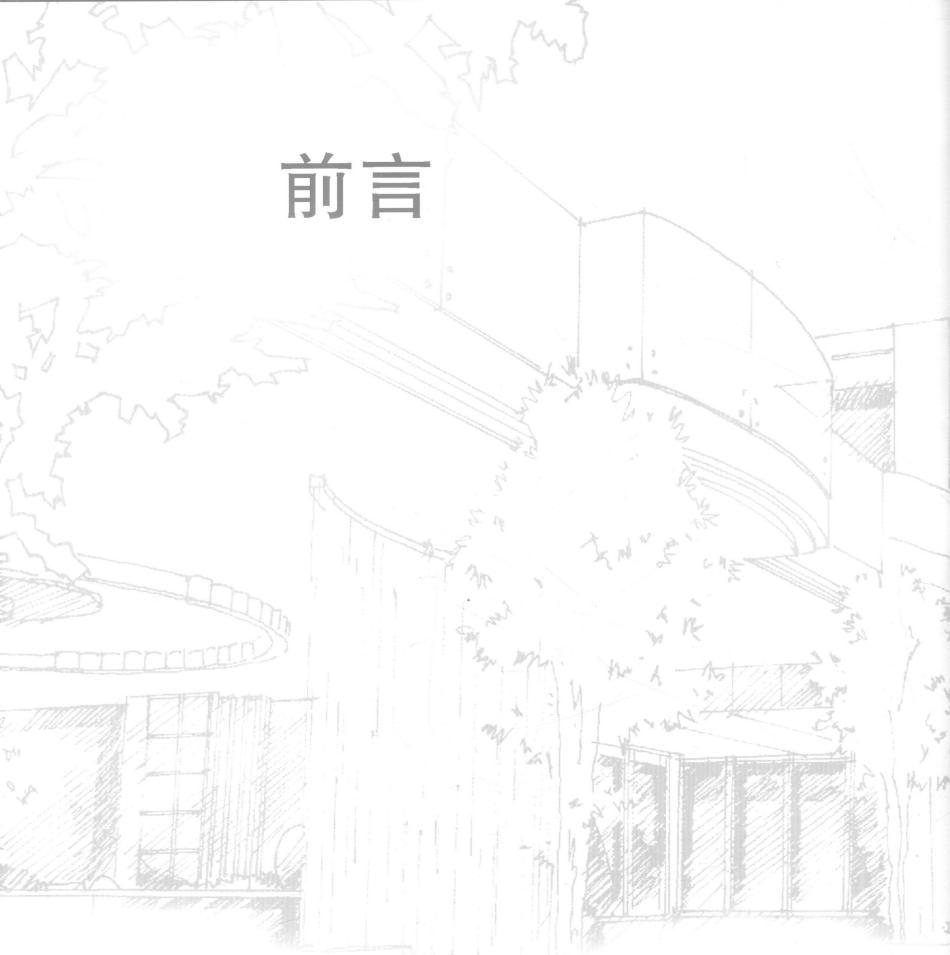

他毕业后,进入了HBA公司工作,成为

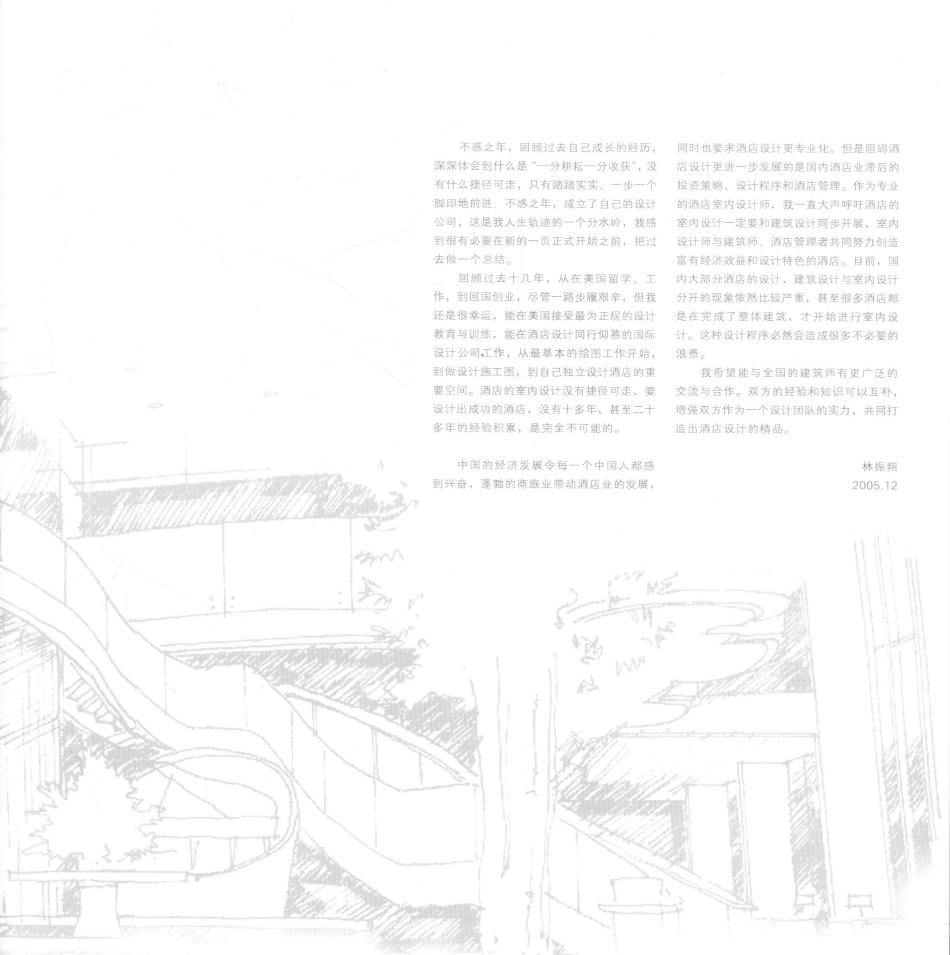

其设计团队中的一员。林在 HBA 公司的进步非 常迅速,经过几年的锻炼,他已经成为一个比 较全面的设计师。除了手绘图外, 他的施工图 和电脑CAD图也已非常成熟。这个时候的林已 经可以独当一面了。后来林也跟随我, 在我的 公司工作。这段时间, 我们完成了不少项目的 设计。在2002年,林回到中国,成立了自己的 酒店专业设计公司, 我们现在是合作伙伴。

林的成长过程可谓"十年磨一剑",林已经 在酒店设计上积累了比较丰富的经验,相信他 在中国的发展前景不可估量, 祝福他。
