又闻筝鸣

走走停停,在时光里一路听着风中的筝音

又是五月,杨柳抚堤,画眉在房前的枝头婉转鸣唱,春烟弥漫着城市、山川 一转身,身后所有的花花草草全笑了,阳光正明媚而慷慨地看着我,一碧蓝天挂在头顶

走在五月,人们行色匆匆

此时,风中的筝又响了起来。丁丁冬冬至云端而下伴和地上孩童的嬉闹声。长久以来,我就这样等待着、听着风筝的鸣唱。

清朗的筝音里有无尽的故事,那样的冷,那样的热,那样的宁静。这声音从鲁班的时代。路响来,从爷爷的爷爷一直到我,就这样我们一代 代在风中的筝音里活着。像昆虫,你得在夏季,你才能以虫子的身份 存在,在春天里,才发现自己和所有的一切原来可以放飞

夜读《庄子》,有感"技扶摇而上者九万里" 风采了,花开了,何不过些有梦的日子?

又是夸飞时节,空中的筝音又响了……

Take a walk and stay, listenning to the whistling of kites in the wind along the time channel.

It May agian, with willow gently touching dykes, thrust birds merrily singing on the top of the tree befor house and mist permeating over the cities, mountains and rivers in spring.

Turning back, I find all flowers and grass smiling to me, bright and beautiful sunshine fervently staring at me, and the blue sky hanging high above me.

striding in May, people are in a hurry to go on their meanwhile, the kite echoing in the wind again, whistling high in the clouds and low mingled with happy laughters of children at play. For quite a long time, I have been waiting in this way, listening to the singing of kites.

Clear and resounding ringing of kites seems endless stories in which you may feel it so cruel <code>.so_</code> impassioned and so peaceful.this ringing has come straightly far from era of LUBAN <code>.china</code> ancient master carpenter lived, and from my grandfather grandfather up to me <code>----we</code> all from generation to generation. It is only in summer that you <code>.just like</code> insects.can exist in the name of an insect and it is only in spring that you may find everything flying in the air..

Deep at night, reading Zhuangzi, ancient chinese philosopher. I have an impression of his famous verse "those who soar on the wings of a cyclone can reach the height of ninety thousand miles" why shoudn I spend some dreamy days when the wind is approaching and flowers are blooming? It is another season now for kites to fly.
