How the Cock Got His Red Face

Long, long ago, a cock, a rabbit, a duck and a dog lived near each other.

One morning, the rabbit came to the cock
and said, "Hello, Brother Cock, I'm going to buy some turnips. May I use your basket?" "Sorry," the cock said, "I'm going to use it myself."

At noon, the duck caught some fish. She came and said to the cock, "Brother Cock, will you please help me carry the fish to my house?" "Sorry," the cock said, "I'm having my lunch, don't you see?"

In the evening, the dog came. "Good evening, Brother Cock. I'm going to town tomorrow morning. I want to get up early. Please crow for me." "No," said the cock, "I can't crow for you so early."

At night came a strong wind and then a heavy rain. The cock's house fell in. The cock could not get out. He cried for help. The rabbit, the duck and the dog all came to his help. They got him out.

After the rain stopped, they helped him build a new house. The cock was very much ashamed. His face turned very, very red.

That's how the cock got his red face.

Text

"The Moving Blackboard"

More than one hundred years ago there lived a great scientist in France. His name was Ampère.

One day, Mr Ampère was taking a walk in the street. There were a lot of people and much noise there. But all this was nothing to him. He was thinking about a maths problem. How he wanted to work it out on a piece of paper! Suddenly, he saw a blackboard in front of him. He ran up to it at once. He took out a piece of chalk and wrote his problem on the blackboard. Then he started to work on it. The blackboard moved a little, but he did not feel it. The blackboard moved on. Mr Ampère was still working on his problem. His legs moved with the blackboard, but he did not know it. The blackboard started to move away faster and faster. Mr Ampère could not keep up with it any longer. He stopped to have a look and saw the "blackboard" was the back of a carriage.
