Preface

I. China Statistical Yearbook 1995 is an annual statistics publication, which covers very comprehensive data series for 1994 and some selected data series for historically important years and the most recent ten years at national level and local levels of province, autonomous region, and cities directly under central government and therefore, reflects various aspects of China's social and economic development.

II. The book is organized into nineteen parts, i. e. 1. Administrative Division and Natural Resources; 2. General Survey; 3. Population; 4. Employment and Wage; 5. Investment in Fixed Assets; 6. Production and Consumption of Energy; 7. Public Finance; 8. Price Indices; 9. People's Livelihood; 10. General Survey of Cities; 11. Agriculture; 12. Industry; 13. Construction; 14. Transportation, Postal and Telecommunications Services; 15. Domestic Trade; 16. Foreign Economy Trade and International Tourism; 17. Banking and Insurance; 18. Education, Science and Culture; 19. Sports, Public Health, Social welfare and others. In the appendices also listed are Main Social and Economic Indicators of Taiwan province, and the regions of Hong Kong and Macao; A Comparison of Indicators of Economy and Society among People's Republic of China and other Countries. In addition, Explanatory Notes for Major Indicators are provided at the end of each part with a brief explanation of the definition, coverage, statistical method applied, and historical changes concerned.

III. The national data in this book does not include that of Taiwan province, and the regions of Hong Kong and Macao except for Area of Total Land, Forest Resources, and Population Census.

IV. The units of measurement used in this book are internationally standard measurement units.

V. The major data sources of this publication are annual statistical reports, and some from sampling surveys. Data of Taiwan and the regions of Hong Kong and Macao are from Monthly Statistics Bulletin and Statistical Yearbook compiled by Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Macao respectively. Data for major countries and regions are from various statistical publications published by the United Nations.

VI. Statistical discrepancies in this book due to rounding are not adjusted.

VII. Any footnotes concerning the whole table are presented at the upper part of the table, while any footnotes concerning individual indicators are presented at the lower part (and in the last page as well for continued tables).

VIII. Explanatory notes for notations used in this book:

... not large enough to be rounded into the least unit, " " data not available. # of which; major items, * or ① see footnotes below, for printing reason, there are not enough space, so, when unit is 100000000, Part of them, we use 10^8 , and 10000, we use 10^4 .
