Message from the President

半个世纪的求索，半个世纪的拼搏，西政人以高昂的斗志和不屈的精神走过沧桑、创下辉煌，用铿锵有力的步伐回答了历史的叩问。桃李吐芳，情满天下，西政的十万学子秉承母校的嘱托，勤勉进取，自强不息，做出了让人足资欣慰的业绩；西政也因其在法学等社会科学的研究和育人方面的煌煌大成而被载入教育史册。

带着昨日的光辉敲开了新世纪的大门，新世纪以更多的课题挑战着西政的未来。国家的改革，经济的发展，社会的进步，需要我们以更科学的态度和更饱满的激情，研究新情况，探索新思路，推进新发展。在新的形势下，惟愿西政全体师生员工以社

会主义市场经济对人才的需求为方向，以争创国内一流政法大学为目标，保持锐意进取之精神，光大严谨求实之学风，深化教育教学改革，优化资源配置，扩大对内对外交流，广采百家之长，殚精竭虑，踏实求进，为西政的持续发展和祖国的繁荣昌盛而努力奋斗。

In the half-century pursuit of truth and in the fifty-year struggle for a better future, all the staff members of China Southwest University of Political Science & Law, with their elated spirits and with unflinching courage, have gone through considerable vicissitudes, fulfilled the historical mission required of the University and achieved educational eminence. More than 100,000 graduates, from all over China and now in all walks of life, bearing in mind the expectations of the University, have been making glorious achievements with their ambitious industry and entrepreneurial spirit. The University has made a noticeable mark in Chinese education for her brilliant achievements not only in her research into Law Science and other Social Sciences, but also in the cultivation of students' integrity.

The University was ushered into the new century with its glory and brilliant achievements. New century confronts the University and her ingenious members with its numerous challenges. State reform programs, economic development and social progress require all the Members of the University to study new situations, seek new perspectives and boost the advancement of the University by adopting scientific attitudes and maintaining indomitable vitality. Under the present situations, as President of China Southwest University of Political Science & Law, I, sincerely hope, that all the staff members, in a concerted effort and in a down-to-earth manner, while orienting themselves toward cultivating the talents needed by the society and aiming at creating a domestically first-rate university, will exert their utmost and keep forging ahead, carry forward the tradition of rigorous academic pursuits, deepen the educational and teaching reforms, optimize the educational resources, extend domestic as well as foreign exchange programs, make use of the cream of various schools of thought, and strive for the sustainable development of the University and the prosperity of the State.

China Southwest University of Political Science & Law (the former Southwest Institute of Political Science & Law) was incorporated in 1953 from College of Law, Chongqing University, and College of Political Science & Law, Sichuan University, and Department of Law, Chongqing College of Finance & Economy, and Department of Law, Guizhou University, and Department of Law, Yunnan University during the restructuring of colleges of higher learning by the State Council in 1952. The University was approved as one of the first few key universities by the State Council in 1978 and was placed under the direct administration of the Ministry of Justice. The former Southwest Institute of Political Science & Law was renamed China Southwest University of Political Science & Law in 1995 with the affirmation and approval of the State Education Commission and Ministry of Justice. The university has developed into a key comprehensive university featuring Economy, Management, Journalism, Foreign Languages and Engineering with Law Science as the focus.

China Southwest University of Political Science & Law is situated in Chongqing, a famous historic and industrial city in Southwest China, with Shapingba and Yubei Campuses. The University occupies an area of over 100 hectares (over one million square meters). Shapingba campus is set in pleasing environment of green plants, lawns and trees under the Gele Mountains, along the Jialing River (one of the most important tributary of Changjiang River), with a total area of 500 Chinese mu (333,350 square meters). Yubei Campus is located in Yubei District of Chongqing Municipality, with a total area of 1000 Chinese mu (666,700 square meters).

The University is directed at training advanced level specialized professionals with thorough knowledge of law, economy, foreign languages and computer technology, who are geared to the needs of the rule-of-law State and who are innovative and pragmatic in their pursuits. The University at present has three departments of Law, College of Criminal Investigation and Forensic Science, College of Politics, Department of Management, Department of Foreign Languages, Department of Economy, Department of Specialized Journalism, Graduate School, Department of Basic Courses, Department of Physical Culture, College of Adult Education and College of Specialized Higher Vocational Education. There are 4 points conferring doctorate degrees in Civil and Commercial Law, Criminal Law, Procedural Law and Economic Law, 12 points conferring Master Degrees and 14 undergraduate programs, 20-odd research institutes on the campus and one "National Base for Cultural Quality Cultivation of University Students".

The University has a current total of 500 - odd full time and part time teachers, 300-odd technologists, and 300-odd other professionals with higher academic or technological titles. The faculty is renowned for their rigorous scholarship, industry as well as matter-of-fact attitudes and down-to-earth pursuit of academic excellence. The student population on the campus reaches 16,900, including 900 graduate students working for their doctorate and master degrees, 8,000-odd undergraduates or those working for the second degrees in law and other disciplines, 8,000-odd adult education students. Since 1953, the University has trained over 100,000 students with various levels of degrees or diplomas. All those graduated from the University have won the reputation of not only having profound knowledge in their professions but also of their capabilities of solving difficult and practical problems.

The University Library has a collection of over one million books; the Forensic Centre is delegated the right of forensic identification; State-level key academic periodical "Modern Law Science" and "Journal of Southwest University of Political Science & Law" are issued and subscribed at home and abroad.

Today, the University is assuming the historic mission as a pioneer in the educational reforms of China. During the Tenth Five-year Plan, the University will further its reforms and development, inherit and carry on its fine tradition of "Unity, Advancement, Pragmatism & Creativeness" so as to make itself a first-class and worldwide known comprehensive University featuring multidisciplinary subjects with Law Science as the focus. The University will also press forward in implementing the national strategies of "Rejuvenating China with Science & Technology and Education" and the "Grand Western Development of China" Project.
