BRIEF INTRODUCTION

Yingkou, located at the mouth of the Liaohe River, on the northeast coast of Liaodong Gulf, is one of the main open coastal cities in China subject to the ratification of the State. It has excellent geographical environment, convenient transportation, and special superiority of having two ports. Yingkou has 37 industry lines including 1,500 enterprises ranging over textile and light industries (bases in Liaoning Province), electronics, building materials, metallurgy, shipbuilding, etc. In addition, there are over 80 enterprises invested by foreign companies and traders. Economy in Yingkou is prosperous and science and technology highly developed.

We warmly welcome all foreign friends, our compatriots in Hongkong, Macao and Taiwan to invest for the establishment of enterprises, the exploitation of stretches of land, the development of international trade and technical consultation. If you are interested in some projects hereunder, please contact with us and we'll offer you details of the projects. We sincerely wish our cooperation successful.
