PREFACE

THE present volume contains a substantial instalment of French cases from as long ago as 1961, and will be rapidly followed by a considerable number of others in the volumes next to appear, in an attempt to bring more closely up to date the presentation of French material. The burden of translating those decisions has fallen on Miss A. L. W. Munkman, to whom I am most grateful.

This publication depends greatly upon the co-operation of those who have knowledge of or access to decisions which would otherwise remain unknown. I wish therefore especially to express my appreciation to Dr. Martin Domke, for first drawing my attention to the Valentine Petroleum case; to Mr. H. Bachrach, for providing the text of the award in the arbitration between Starways Limited and the United Nations; and to the Foreign Office, London, for the text of the award in the arbitration between the Commission of the European Atomic Energy Community and the United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority.

Once again, the appearance of the volume has depended largely upon the efforts of Dr. Gillian White and Mrs. A. B. Lyons, whom I thank most warmly. Miss E. E. Jansen, Mrs. S. Rainbow, the publishers Messrs. Butterworth & Co., and the printers R. J. Acford Ltd. have all played their now well established and no less well appreciated roles.
