ALAN ALMOST DIDN'T GET TO WORK THIS MORNING

Alan almost didn't get to work this morning.

As he was leaving his apartment building, he was hit on the head with a flowerpot which had been put on a windowsill by one of his neighbors.

As he was walking to the bus stop, he was bitten by a dog and stung by a bee.

While he was waiting for the bus, he was almost run over by a car.

While he was riding on the bus, his wallet was stolen. All his money and identification cards were taken.

As he was walking into his office building, he was accidentally knocked down by a boy delivering newspapers.

And when Alan finally got to work, he was yelled at by his boss for being an hour late.

Poor Alan! What a way to begin the day!

A VERY EXCITING YEAR

In January Martha was hired by the Fernwood Company as a secretary. In March she was sent to school by the company to study statistics and accounting. In April she was given a raise. Just two months later, she was promoted to the position of supervisor of her department.

In August she was chosen "Employee of the Month." In October she was given another raise. In November she was invited to apply for a position in the company's overseas office in Bangkok. And in December she was given the new job and flown to Thailand to begin work.

Martha certainly has had a very exciting year. She can't believe all the wonderful things that have happened to her since she was hired just twelve months ago.

JOE'S AUTO REPAIR SHOP

Wilma Jones has been having a lot of trouble with her car recently, so she decided to take it to Joe's Auto Repair Shop to be fixed. The car is there now and is receiving a LOT of attention from Joe and the other mechanics at his shop.

The engine is being tuned. The oil is being changed. The battery is being charged. The brakes are being adjusted. The heater is being repaired. The broken headlight is being replaced. The hood is being repainted. The tires are being checked. And the broken rear window is being fixed.

Wilma is aware that she's probably going to be charged a lot of money for these repairs. But she's confident that her car will be returned to her in excellent condition by the fine people who work at Joe's Auto Repair Shop.
