Case Study: The Parker Family

This is a phototgraph of the Parker family on holiday in Cornwall. Ann and Clive have three children, two sons and a daughter. They live in West London. The eldest son, Michael, is in America, so he is not in this photograph.

Ann is a canteen assistant at a college. She is rather shy. 'I'm the quiet one of the family', she says. Ann is from Grenada, in the West Indies. Her parents are there now. They are in their seventies and they are retired.

Clive is a very jolly, friendly man. He is a salesman in a big warehouse. They sell all kinds of household equipment such as kitchen sinks, cupboards and baths. Clive's mother and father are from Trinidad, but they live in New York now. They are American citizens. Like Ann's parents, they are in their seventies. Michael lives with his grandparents in New York.

Tony is nineteen years old. In many ways, he is a typical teenager, but he is quite mature for his age. He is not married yet, but he is engaged. Tony is a motor mechanic and he has his own car.

Karen is slim and pretty. She is fifteen, so she is still at school. She is interested in most things. She is good at school work and good at sport too. She is a happy, lively girl with a lot of friends.

Do a Case Study of your family or a family you know.
