The Publisher's Note

This year marks the 25th anniversary of China's reform and opening-up as well as the 100th anniversary of the birth of Deng Xiaoping, the chief architect of China's reform. The rapid rise of China's economy is proof of Deng's far-sighted decision and we dedicate this book, Stories of China's Reform and Opening-up, to this beloved leader. We hope that the book will illustrate the arduous journey taken by the Chinese people on the road towards modernization over the past 25 years.

The book contains two parts. The first part uses statistics to show the tremendous changes over the past 25 years. The second part consists of 100 picture stories that portray, from different angles, how Deng Xiaoping's reforms have changed Chinese society. All the stories are told by real people from all walks of life. They are grouped under the following subjects: The City, Family, Economy, People, Life, Culture and Rural China. All the pictures are authentic and they depict the impact of reform on this ancient nation and its people. The stories and images together are compelling, soul-stirring, and thought-provoking.

There is an inscription of a Chinese calligraphy seal on each page and all the seals were created by well-known engravers, making the book a valuable collector's item.

The book is published jointly by the Shui On Group, Wen Wei Po in Hong Kong and China International Publishing Group. Mr. Alan Zie Yongder, a famous art designer from Hong Kong, serves as the concept and design director for the book.

We have been fortunate to have several leading business and cultural personalities as advisors on the book's production. They come from several countries and have all followed the development of China's reform closely for many years. Their insight and suggestions have been invaluable in the making of this book and we offer them our heartfelt gratitude.

Preface

In the East where the sun rises, China, the sleeping giant on the west coast of the Pacific Ocean, is waking up. After 25 years of reform and opening-up to the outside world, China has evolved from an egalitarian planned economy to a socialist market economy. The country is now at full speed in its drive for modernization.

The nation's rapid and sustained GDP growth, its abundance of consumer goods and its visible prosperity are all evidence of the fact that reform has unleashed the creative power of a billion Chinese people. At the same time, the opening-up policy has attracted a tidal wave of foreign investment, high technology and new talent that is narrowing the gap between China and the developed countries. As a new member of the World Trade Organization, China is also playing a larger role in world affairs.

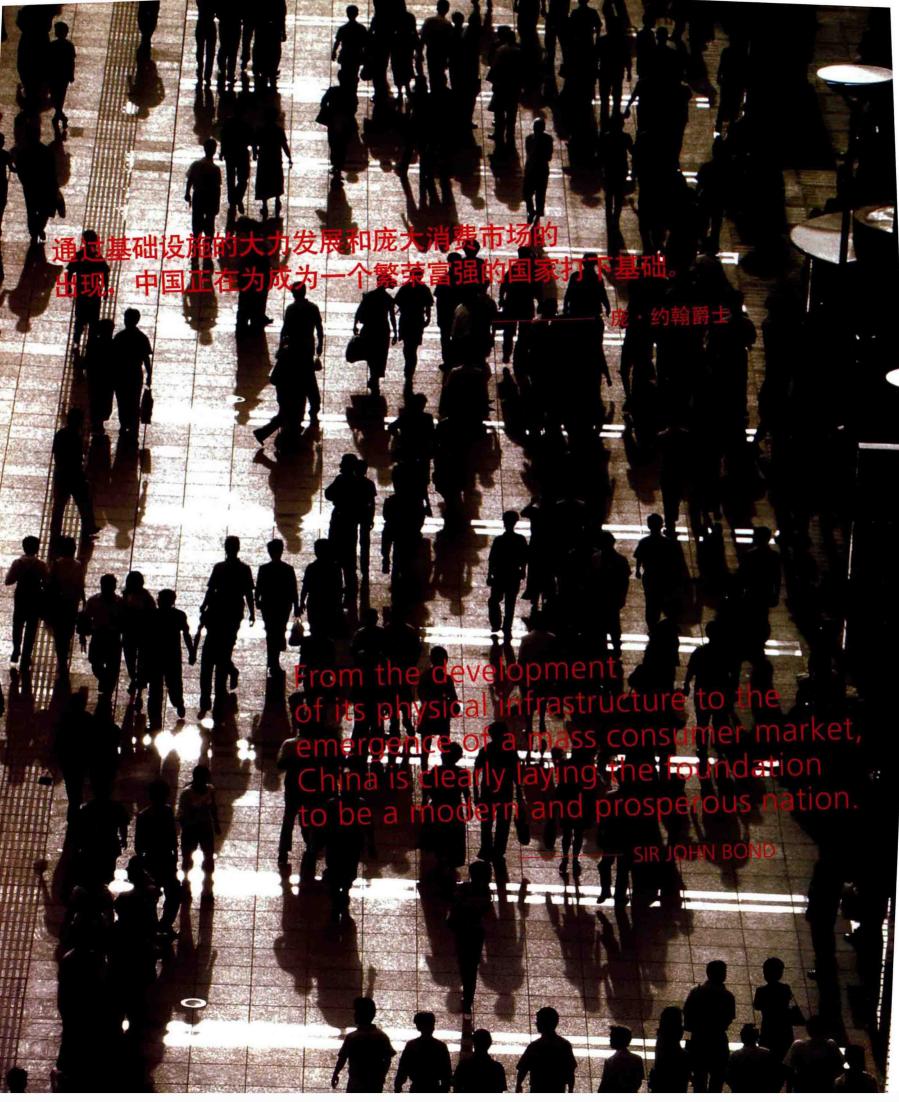

The country's miraculous changes bear the imprint of Deng Xiaoping and the chief architect of China's reform occupies a special place in the hearts of millions of Chinese. This year marks the 100th anniversary of the birth of Deng Xiaoping as well as the 25th anniversary of China's reform process. We dedicate this volume, Stories of China's Reform and Opening-up, to the great man who set China on a new course.

The last 25 years are just a fleeting moment in human history yet they have witnessed tremendous change in China and it is impossible for us to encapsulate all this in one book. However, we sincerely hope that it will help to piece together an overall picture of China's transformation through its varied and vivid images.

The book is intended to open a window on the life of ordinary Chinese people. It tells their stories and portrays their joys and agonies, their aspirations and frustrations. The images open the floodgates of memory for many of us. Leafing through this picture book will, for many, feel like reliving 25 years of social change as we retrace the journey of China's reform.

Yesterday is already history—and today is the start of tomorrow. We hope that, in due course, China's continuing transformation will create new stories and supply the material for a sequel.

理应获得的赞誉

就我的观点而言,中国正在成功书写一

部由计划经济向市场经济转变,由农业社会向城市化转变的史册。中国用一代人的努力取得了其他国家几代人才取得的成就,因此我坚信中国理应获得巨大的赞誉。

我在1972年初次访问中国并在日后经常来访。 每次来访我都能看到中国的巨大进步。通过基础设施的大力发展和庞大消费市场的出现,中国正在为成为一个繁荣富强的国家打下基础。 中国的领导人不仅取得了高速的经济增长,而且驾驭了因经济高速发展带来的变革,这都明确地展示了他们高超的领导才华。

在过去的25年中,中国的经济发展经历了无数的里程碑:比如中国成功加入WTO。我相信中国最伟大的成就之一是她学习他国经验同时创造机会在许多方面超越西方社会的能力。

中国正继续进行让他国羡慕的经济转型,这容易让人忽略中国在过去的20个世纪中有18个世纪曾是全球最大的经济体。我毫无疑问地相信中国能够,并且将会重新赢得这个地位。

CHINA: A CELEBRATION From my perspective, China is writing the book on how to move successfully from a planned economy to a market economy and from a rural society to a more urban one. I also believe that the country deserves enormous credit for trying to achieve in one generation what other nations have taken centuries to accomplish.

I first went to China in 1972 and have been returning regularly. Each and every time I visit the country I see tangible signs of substantive progress. From the development of its physical infrastructure to the emergence of a mass consumer market, China is clearly laying the foundation to be a modern and prosperous nation. What is also clear is that China's leadership has demonstrated great skill in achieving stunning economic growth while managing the change and transition that such a level of growth inevitably brings.

There have been numerous milestones in China's development over the last 25years: the country taking its rightful seat at the WTO table, for example. However, I believe one of China's greatest achievements has been its ability to study and learn from others' experiences and in the process create opportunities to leapfrog the West in many respects.

As China continues an economic transformation that is the envy of many other countries, it is perhaps easy to forget the fact that China has been the world's largest economy for perhaps 18 out of the last 20 centuries. There is no doubt in my mind that China can and will regain this position.

25年的进步

一日为此少 自从1975年以来我曾多次访问中国。回首往昔,无法想象中国在这么短的时间里取得了巨大的进步。中国人民的成就是非凡的。国家的繁荣稳定,不断改善的健康与教育条件和改革开放带来的机遇都使中国人民的生活蒸蒸日上。中国业已建立与亚洲邻国紧密而且建设性的关系,并且成为国际社会重要一品

中国在过去25年的经济增长简直可以说是奇迹。这不仅在城市而且在农村都显而易见。特别是在中国的东部地区,人民的生活水平得到了巨大的提高。沿海地区人民生活质量的提高和改善将进一步使整个国家受益。我们可以预见中国经济在不远的将来会继续增长。

中美关系是当今世界最重要的国与国关系之一,中美两国紧密合作是符合两国共同利益的。在美国,许多人认为中国理应成为WTO的一员。加入WTO不仅需要很大的决心和魄力,而且这一具有里程碑意义的成就将给中国人民、美国人民及全世界人民带来福祉。

我为我们与中国的良好友谊感到骄傲并且期待在未来继续开拓发展。我希望在下一个25年里参与发展中美友好事业的人们牢记,中美两国只有一种关系一建设性关系。这正是过去25年里不断驱动中美关系取得巨大进步的信念。

莫里斯•格林伯格 美国国际集团主席 25 Years of Progress I have been visiting China since 1975. Looking back, it would have been impossible to imagine how much progress the country would make in this short amount of time. The accomplishments of the Chinese people have been extraordinary. They are enjoying more prosperity, greater stability, advances in health and education, and the opening up of vast fields of opportunity. China has built strong and productive ties with its Asian neighbors and the West, and has become an integrated member of the global community.

During the past 25 years, economic growth has been nothing short of miraculous. It is evident in both the modern cities and in the countryside. This is especially true in the eastern part of China where the lifestyle of the people has improved dramatically. In time, the growth and improvements in quality of life that have been taking place in coastal regions will increasingly benefit the entire country. We can expect China's progress to continue for the foreseeable future.

The U.S.-China relationship is one of the most important in the world today, and it is in the national interests of both our countries to work closely together. Many of us in the United States always believed that China should be in the World Trade Organization. While gaining membership required great determination, it is gratifying knowing that this landmark achievement will bring many benefits to the citizens of China, the United States and the world.

I am proud of the many friendships we have in China today and look forward to our future together. It is my hope that those involved in building U.S.-China relations during the next quarter century will remember that there is only one type of relationship our two countries can have — a constructive one. This has been the driving belief behind the great progress that has been made over the course of the past 25 years.

政策的连续性至关重要 在过去的25年中,中国经

历了空前的经济增长,从一个几乎不能满足大多数国民温饱的国家,发展成繁荣富强的国家,在世界上的地位也日益提升。同时,中国的产品以实惠的价格输出到全球,也使得世界各国能受惠于中国与日俱增的经济实力。

经济增长不仅满足了中国人民的物质需求,而且增强了中国人民的自信心。同时,他们获得更开阔的思路和更多的机会去发展自身的技能。伴随着越来越开放的经济改革,整个民族的精神和自豪感已经得到了稳步的提升。这些成功也影响到了海外华人的生活和观念,他们直接为中国的成功感到骄傲。中国人民通过接触国际上的科学技术和多元化的世界文化大大丰富了自身的生活。

作为一个对中国十分感兴趣的经济学家, 我为中国的成功感到非常骄傲。因此,我 要向中国人民表达我最高的敬意。我认 为保持那些给经济带来强劲增长的政策 的连续性是至关重要的,而且我认为中国 在今后的数十年中有能力在保持货币稳 定的同时持续快速地发展经济。

Continuity of Policies--A Key Factor to Economic Growth In the last 25 years, China's development has been unparalleled by any record in the history of economic growth. Starting from a stage where the basic needs for the majority of the people could barely be satisfied, China has become a prosperous country that is increasingly an important player in the world. China's growing economic strength has also been widely shared by the rest of the world as Chinese goods are made available at lower prices than ever before.

Economic growth has not only fulfilled material wants; it has also generated increasing confidence of the Chinese people. It has given them a more open mindset and opportunities for increased human capital. Coupled with higher economic freedom and liberty, there has been a steady uplift in national spirit and pride. To this success is also associated the life and viewpoint of the overseas Chinese who have directly contributed to China's prosperity and can justly share pride in its success. The life of the Chinese people has also been greatly enriched by its access to international technology and the increasingly global outlook of a more international culture.

As an economist deeply interested in China, I am very proud of China's success. I would therefore like to convey to the Chinese people my highest compliments. It is extremely important that the policies which have led to strong economic growth be continued. I should say also that high sustainable growth with monetary stability can be in China's future for decades to come.

Again, my congratulations!
