Dialogue A

(A: Mike            B: Grace)

A: Say, Grace, how you doing?

B: Mike! Hey, how are you?

A: Not bad. Where you going?

B: Over to Jerry's. How are about you?

A: Oh, I just got off work. Boy, I'm so hungry that I could eat a horse!

B: Where are you working now?

A: J & L Steel. It's real pain. But I guess I shouldn't complain. Lots of guys are out of work these days.

B: Yeah, that's the truth. Well, I'd better let you go and get some supper.

A: Yeah. It was great seeing you again. Maybe we could get together sometime.

B: Sounds good. I'll give you a call.

A: OK. Great. Well, I'll be seeing you.

B: OK, Mike. Enjoy your meal.

A: Thanks. Bye.

B: Bye.

Dialogue B

(Wang meets Smith on the street.)

(A: Wang            B: Smith)

A: Good morning, Mr. Smith.

B: Good morning, Mr. Wang.

A: How are you?

B: (I'm) very well, thank you. How are you?

A: (I'm) fine, thanks. Where are you going?

B: I'm going shopping. And you?

A: I'm going home. Oh, you must come over and see us some-time. I'd like you to meet my wife.

B: That's very nice of you. I'd be delighted to come.

A: Good. Nice to have met you, Mr. Smith. Good-bye.

B: Good-bye.

Dialogue C

(A: Daniel        B: Sir        C: Robert)

A: Hello! I'm a new student here. My name is Daniel Baker, sir.

B: Welcome to our school. You gonna live in the room over there. I'll direct you.

A: I appreciate your offer very much.
(knocks on the door)

Hello! Anybody there?

C: I'm here. You must be my new roommate. My first name is Robert, just call me Bob.

A: Pleased to meet you. I'm Daniel Jones, but I go by my nickname, Dan.

C: Well, welcome you! Come on in and make yourself at home.

A: Is this our room, Bob?

C: Sure is.

A: It's kind of small and old, isn't it?

C: Better get used to it. Get unpacked. Put everything where is supposed to be.

A: Is this a co-school?

C: Sure. We have girls, too. And the reason why I go to this school is that I can see lotta pretty girls. And I like the way they dress.

A: I can't imagine how I can go through dull and long school years without girls by my side.

B: Tomorrow I'll find you a hot date, playboy.

Dialogue D

(A: Larry      B: Edward)

A: Hi! haven't we met before?

B: No, I don't think so. I'm the new owner. I'm Edward Stewart. How are you doing this morning?

A: Pretty good, thanks. I'm Larry King. How nice to have you as my new neighbor! Where did you live before you moved here?

B: In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania where it's called Mid-Atlantic area.

A: Pennsylvania is a nice place. I used to live there. Why did you make the movement?

B: I got business transfer. My boss had me open a local store here in San Francisco, California. And California is a nice and sunny state, which has nice beaches.

A: You happen to get this house which is close to the beach.

B: Besides, this house is located in a good neighborhood, close to the schools. There's good transportation, and good things going on for my kids.

A: You think of everything. Well, I have to go. I live over there. I welcome you and your family to my house. Please call me before you go. Catch you later.

B: Bye! Have a nice day!
