前　　言

本书根据浙江大学编写的《新编大学英语》(外语教学与研究出版社出版)编写而成,与教材同步,与新大纲一致,并与四、六级考试接轨。本书具有以下三大特点:

一、本书是一本辅导大全

在内容上,本书的详尽程度超出了同类其他辅导书。与同类书相比,本书不仅给出了课文辅导,还给出了课堂口语训练和听力训练的辅导。单就课文辅导而言,本书不仅给出了课内阅读的辅导,还给出了课后阅读详尽的辅导。

全书具体辅导内容严格参照教材同步编写,分为十二个单元。每个单元内包括四个部分,其中,Part One: Preparation 中对课堂口语练习提供了补充参考词汇与示范(sample); Part Two: Listening-Centered Activities 中给出了练习答案及听力材料原文,便于学生对照检查自己的听力理解情况; Part Three: Reading-Centered Activities 是本书的重点内容,包括单元内所有课文(课内阅读及课后阅读)的详细辅导。每篇课文的讲解又分为五项内容,分别是:A. 单词助记;B. 重点词组;C. 语言难点解析;D. 课后练习详解;E. 参考译文。在 Part Four: Quiz 中,我们对原教材所附的小测验(Quiz),作出了详细的解答,便于读者在进行自测后,及时对照检查。

二、本书是一本记忆指南

大学阶段,英语学习的关键之一即扩大词汇量。同时,由于教材包括课内及课后阅读两部分内容,信息量大,词汇量也大,是学生学习的主要瓶颈。为了帮助学生全面扩大词汇量,我们特设了“单词助记”专题,采用科学有效的星火记忆方法帮助读者巧记速记。

任何一套教材,因其篇幅所限,其词汇量难以将《大纲》内的所有单词、所有义项包罗无遗。为使同学们尽快达到四、六级应试的词汇量,在编写过程中,我们注意解决了以下几方面的问题:

1. 不仅帮助记忆课内阅读的生词,还帮助记忆课后阅读的生词;不仅帮助记忆课内、课后阅读生词表中的生词,而且以其为基础,运用星火式记忆法展开记忆,帮助同学们全面扩大词汇量。

2. 不单记单词在课文中的释义,而是有意识地帮助记忆一词多义,帮助同学们充实词汇量。

3. 除了帮助记忆外,本书还在四、六级统考的关键词下列有相应的“考点”与“试题”,以减少复习备考的盲目性。

三、本书是一本非常笔记

课堂上,既要认真听讲,又要做详细的笔记,您是否感到难以兼顾而忙乱?复习时,课本+辅导材料+笔记,对应查阅,您是否感到费力不便?

为解决上述问题,本书在版式设计上匠心独运,为读者预留了随堂笔记的空间,便于读者记下问题或教师讲解的其他内容,真正实现了辅导书与笔记本的合二为一,并采用 16 开的形式,与原教材完全配套。我们相信,本书必将省去您诸多的忙乱和不便,成为您学习《新编大学英语》的良伴。

欢迎广大读者提出宝贵意见。来信必复,并在此表示衷心的感谢! 来信请寄:(250014)济南市历山路 148 号 英语星火式记忆法教研中心 来电请拔:(0531)2947406 公司网址:www.sparkenglish.com 电子信箱:xinghuo@jn-public.sd.cninfo.net

Unit 1

Happiness

随堂笔记

Part One

Preparation

1. Stories Behind the Faces

[Sample 示范]

Faces:

Story: A friend of mine went into work one day, very excited about her new birthday present: earrings that were big, round, working clocks! She proudly showed them to everyone. (Face 1) At lunchtime, she was alone in the office when a man entered and asked what time it was. A big grin spread across her face. (Face 2) She stepped close to the man, looked him in the eye and shook her head so he would notice her new timepieces. The man's eyes grew large, he stammered a thank-you and quickly left. My friend then saw her new earrings lying in the middle of her desk! (Face 3) She had taken them off when talking on the phone.

2. Happiness Test

Step Two

[Sample 示范]

- 1) a. I'm most satisfied with the fact that I'm intelligent enough to be enrolled in the very university that I dreamt of entering when I was a high school student.
b. I'm most satisfied with my strong communication ability. It is easy for me to make friends with other people soon after I meet them.
c. I'm most satisfied with my slim and shapely figure. I can eat my favorite candies without worrying about getting fat.
d. I'm most satisfied with the harmonious relationships between the members of my family. We help and learn from each other and enjoy each other's company.
- 2) a. I'm most dissatisfied with my bad habit of staying in bed late in the morning, by which I won the name "lazy cat" among my friends.
b. I'm most dissatisfied with my bad temper. I'm easily annoyed by anything I find unsatisfactory.
c. I'm most dissatisfied with my performance in physical training class. Last term I was the only student in my class who failed to pass the 10,000-meter running test.
- 3) a. I think I will become even happier after graduation because I can be economically independent and pursue my interests with the money I earn. And I think with the knowledge I have learnt in college I will make much progress in my work.

随堂笔记

b. I don't think every student can become happier after graduation. We are quite carefree when we are students. After we graduate, we will inevitably meet different kinds of people and will be in different situations that we cannot predict now. I'm afraid that not all the problems of life will be solved. So probably we will feel discouraged from time to time.

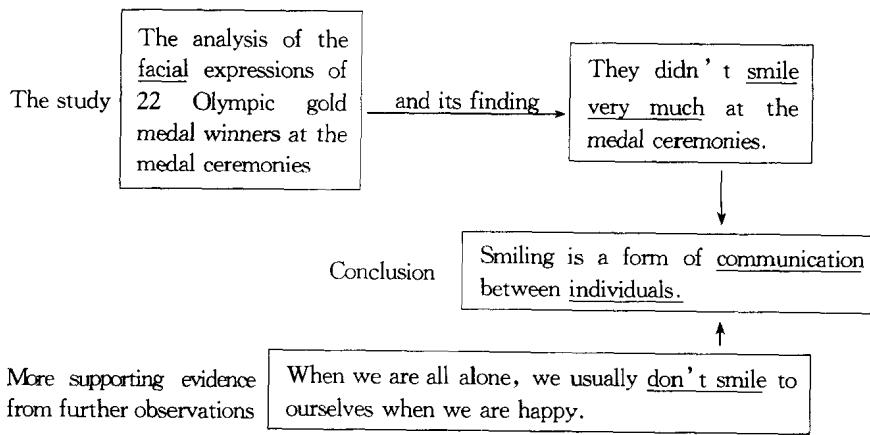

Part Two

Listening-Centered Activities

Listening I

A. Keys to exercises 练习答案

Ex. 1.

Ex. 2.

- 1) What is the nationality of the researchers? B
- 2) How much of the time did the gold medal winners smile during the medal ceremonies? A
- 3) When did the athletes smile quite a lot? C
- 4) How did the gold medal winners feel during the ceremony? D
- 5) According to the passage, on which of the following occasions would we most probably NOT smile? A
- 6) Which of the four statements is true according to the passage you have just heard? D

Ex. 3.

[Samples 示范]

- 1) —I agree that smiling is a form of communication between individuals. When a friend or a neighbor smiles to us, we usually manage to give him or her a smile in turn even if we are in low spirits.
—I don't agree that smiling is a form of communication between individuals. I sometimes smile when I recall something interesting. For example, when I read a letter from my niece, who is now a intelligent and hard-working middle school student, and remember many of her naughty tricks when she was a little girl, I smile. But I don't think I am communicating with others.
- 2) —Yes. I will smile when I feel happy. Sometimes I feel so happy that I will smile even when I am walking alone along the city streets, and strangers seeing my smile may also smile back to me. Maybe they are saying to themselves at the same time, "Do I know the girl who is smiling to me? What's her name?"
- 3) —I always smile when I meet someone I know.

随堂笔记

- When I am reading something interesting, for example, when I am reading a humorous story, I will smile.
- I always smile when I'm watching some interesting TV programs.
- Sometimes when I want to encourage others, I will smile.

4) Other ways to express one's happiness:

- to write to others;
- to sing and dance;
- to yell and jump;
- to cry;
- to clap one's hands;
- to chat with others;
- to play games;
- to clean the room and put everything in order.

Happiness and Smiling

Happiness is associated with smiling. But do we always smile when we are happy?

During the Olympic Games in Barcelona in 1992, Spanish researchers analyzed the facial expressions of 22 gold medal winners at the medal ceremonies. The researchers were surprised to see that these medal winners didn't smile very much. In fact, throughout the different medal ceremonies, they only smiled about 10% of the time. But during the brief moment when the gold medal was actually put around their neck, the medal winners grinned about 70% of the time.

The researchers interviewed the athletes they had watched to find out how they felt. All the winners interviewed said that they felt intensely happy throughout the ceremony.

Despite the fact that they were profoundly happy, they didn't smile a great deal. The researchers concluded that smiling is not the automatic expression of happiness. The fact that the gold medal winners smiled much more when they were actually being given their medals can be explained because, according to the Spanish researchers, smiling is a form of communication between individuals. The happy athletes were smiling at the people who were giving them their gold medals.

Perhaps we can support the findings of the Spanish researchers by making some observations of our own behavior. When we are all alone, for example, do we smile to ourselves when we are happy? Probably not very often. If someone greets us with a friendly smile, do we respond with a smile? Yes, we probably do. When a friend gives us a beautiful present, would we show our appreciation with a smile? Yes, of course. But if we are sitting alone watching television, do we smile at a commentator who smiles at us?

Listening II

A. Keys to Exercises 练习答案

Ex. 1.

The Interviewer's Questions	Professor Sherwood's Answers
1) Are people in rich countries happier than people in not-so-rich countries?	The economic wealth of a country does appear to reflect the overall well-being of its citizens. Evidence: In Portugal, one in ten people report being very happy. In Holland, four in ten people report being very happy.

随堂笔记

2) Are rich people in a country happier than poor people?	In poor countries, satisfaction with one's financial situation does affect happiness. But once people can afford the basic necessities of life, having more money doesn't necessarily make them happier.
Can winning a lottery bring happiness?	As a matter of fact, various studies show that winners only get temporary joy.
Do people become happier as their countries become richer?	A steady increase in a country's prosperity does not mean an increase in its people's happiness. Evidence: In the United States, from 1957 to 1996, the proportion of happy people declined from 35% to 30%. But during that same period, the average income per person in the country doubled.

Ex. 2.

- 1) Wealth is like health. If you don't have your health or if you are extremely poor, you will be miserable.
- 2) Happiness is wanting what we have rather than getting what we want.
- 3) —Yes, I agree. When one is in poor health, they can't be happy. They will have to worry about getting their family into trouble because they need others to take special care of them and a large sum of money to cure them of illness. And there'll be no chance for them to enjoy life, let alone to feel happy.
—No. Happiness is only a kind of feeling and it has nothing to do with how much money we own or how strong we are. Sometimes a couple living a luxurious life may feel less happier than a couple who live in a shanty and work hard to earn a living. In my opinion, harmonious relationships between members of the family and a peaceful mind contribute more to one's feeling of happiness than wealth.

Wealth and Well-Being

- Interviewer: Good morning, Professor Sherwood. Thank you for accepting our interview. You've been doing research on happiness for many years, so I'm sure you have some interesting information to share with our audience.
- Prof. Sherwood: Good morning. Thank you for inviting me. I hope I can answer your questions.
- Interviewer: I would like to start with a general question. Are people in rich countries happier than people in not-so-rich countries?
- Prof. Sherwood: Well, I would say there is a relationship between national wealth and well-being. In other words, the economic wealth of a country does appear to reflect the overall well-being of its citizens. For instance, in Portugal, one in ten people reports being very happy, whereas in Holland, four in ten people say they are very happy.
- Interviewer: Does it mean that rich people in a country are happier than poor people?
- Prof. Sherwood: In some poor countries, satisfaction with one's financial situation does affect happiness. But once people are able to afford the basic necessities of life, having more money doesn't necessarily make them happier.
- Interviewer: What about rich places like Europe and the United States? Are income and happiness related?

随堂笔记

- Prof. Sherwood: Very little. Rich people are only slightly happier than the average citizen. People whose income increases constantly are not any happier than people whose income doesn't increase.
- Interviewer: I'm always wondering whether winning a lottery can bring happiness. Is there any research on that?
- Prof. Sherwood: Well, as a matter of fact, various studies show that lottery winners only get temporary joy.
- Interviewer: I guess wealth is like health. If you don't have your health or if you're extremely poor, you will be miserable.
- Prof. Sherwood: Yes, that's true. Happiness is wanting what we have rather than getting what we want.
- Interviewer: That's a nice way of putting it. Well, in your opinion, do people become happier as their countries become richer?
- Prof. Sherwood: Well, if I take the case of the United States, from 1957 to 1996, the proportion of people who said that they were very happy declined from 35% to 30%. But during that same period, the average income per person in the United States doubled.
- Interviewer: So, you mean that a steady increase in a country's prosperity does not mean an increase in its people's happiness.
- Prof. Sherwood: That's right.
