六、阅读理解

One day Mrs Wilson took Trudy and Ann to go shopping. They went to the supermarket in the new shopping mall.

“Why do you buy things here, Mum?” Trudy asked.

“Because they are cheaper than those at the corner store,” Mrs Wilson said.

The Wilsons were not rich and Mrs Wilson was always careful with her money. She looked carefully at the prices of things. She bought some groceries (杂货) in the supermarket.

When they got home, the children said, “We don’t think you saved money by going to the supermarket there.”

“Of course I did,” said Mrs Wilson, “everything was cheap there.”

“We know,” said the children, “but we came home by taxi because we had too much to carry. The cost of the taxi was more than the money you saved!”

Mrs Wilson added everything up and found her children were right.

“Well done,” she said, “next time we will do the shopping near our home.”
