Xu Ning was born in Yancheng County, Jiangsu Province in 1936. In the early 1950s, he was engaged in art work in an army unit. At the beginning of the 1980s, he was transferred to the Jiangsu Provincial Academy of Chinese Painting, specializing in traditional Chinese figure painting. He is member of the Chinese Artists' Association, a senior painter and deputy director of the figure painting office of the Jiangsu Provincial Academy of Chinese Painting.

During his more than 30 years of painting, he has entered his works to many exhibitions in the countries and regions of Europe, America and Southeast Asia, including Japan, Hong Kong and Taiwan. His paintings have been collected in the China Art Gallery, the Beijing Academy of Chinese Painting, the Military Museum of the Chinese Revolution, the Jiangsu Provincial Art Gallery and some other museums and art galleries across the country. In 1987, the Exhibition of Xu Ning's Paintings was Jointly sponsored by the Jiangsu Provincial Artists' Association, the Jiangsu Provincial Academy of Chinese Painting and the Jiangsu Provincial Art Gallery. In the same year he held an exhibition in the China Art Gallery. In 1990 in Nanjing, he gave an Exhibition of Xu Ning's Paintings from Nature in Xinjiang. He has also published A Selection of Xu Ning's Chinese Paintings and his name is listed in The Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Artists and The Biographical Dictionary of Contemporary Painters of Traditional Chinese Painting. Beside, he was introduced in Hong Kong's Wen Hui Bao and Collector's World in 1991.
