六、阅读理解。

American people like to say "Thank you" when others help them or say something kind for them. People of many countries do so, too. It's a very good habit. You should say "Thank you" when someone passes you the salt on the table, when someone walking ahead of you keeps the door open for you, when someone says you have done your work well, or you have bought a nice thing, or your city is very beautiful. "Thank you" is used not only between friends, but also between parents and children, brothers and sisters. "Excuse me" is another short sentence they use. When you hear someone say so behind you, you know that somebody wants to walk past you without touching you. It's not polite to break others when they are talking. If you want to speak to one of them, say "Excuse me" first, and then begin talking. You should also do so when you begin to cough or make any noise before others. Let's learn to say "Thank you" and "Excuse me".

() 1. You should say "Thank you" when _____.

- A. you say something kind to others
- B. you help others
- C. someone helps you
- D. you need others to help you

() 2. From the passage (文章) we know "Thank you" is _____.

- A. widely used (广泛使用) in the world
- B. used more often than "Excuse me"
- C. used only by Americans
- D. used only between friends

() 3. You should say "Excuse me" if you want to _____.

- A. cough B. make some noise
- C. go first D. all of the above

() 4. When you are going to ask someone to tell you the way, you should say "_____".

- A. Thank you
- B. That's very kind of you
- C. Excuse me
- D. I'm sorry

() 5. This passage mainly tells us the way _____.

- A. to be happy
- B. to be polite
- C. to help others
- D. to learn from Americans
