Editor's Words

Vicissitudes of history and of human life are much like the movements of a crab; sometimes forward, sometimes backward, oft in a crisscross and at times sideward.

QingdaoStar - THE SPR HOUSE looks much like a giant crab — having just crept up from the wide ocean and warmly nestled on the shore of Qingdao. Life-form and environment in harmony. This is the architectural theme of QingdaoStar.

This is probably the only modern building in China featuring the Chinese Royal White Marble; the same marble as was used in the Beijing Forbidden City. Extracted from the same former imperial quarry, its usage in itself reflects courage. Ultimately, it does reflect history.

Recognizing nature, family, home and comfort as essential elements of good living, QingdaoStar in the process of the creation has painstakingly blended these elements into the design. The results are clearly manifested.

Against the backdrop of China of today and the endowed environment, the designer in creating this building is guided by the imperative of realising space and structure to achieve maximum transparency, maximal use of natural light, clever play with shadows and their interplay in the liveliest form.

Much creative thinking is embodied in this building. More importantly, however, the process of its creation can be said to reflect the pursuit of a dream. Great building begins with a dream.

历史的轨迹、人生的际遇、运动方式，犹如蟹行忽而后退，忽而前进，忽而交叉，忽而平行……

弄海园·琴岛星这栋建筑似蟹，自美丽的中国青岛石老人海洋斜进地驻足在这块土地，与自然环境景观相融合，并以此作为建筑与艺术的主题。

采自北京房山的御用汉白玉，源自紫禁城同一矿区，自开采原石至大板到墙面均由弄海园·琴岛星团队细心呵护而完成中国首栋汉白玉建筑，是创造新事物的胆大表现。

突显自然、家庭、自在、安居的弄海园·琴岛星是用心与真心的结晶。

设计手法流畅地反映当今中国的时间背景、环境因素和建筑目的。弄海园·琴岛星重视形体和空间，强调光的重要性，达到了高度透明的设计要求，处处见到光、影、线充满生命力的透视效果，甚是壮观与和谐。

这是一栋具创造性的形体和空间建筑，设计过程追求真实，并沉浸在自我追梦中，是难得一见奇迹般的作品。

Qingdao, the host city for the 2008 Olympic sailing Regatta, is one of the most beautiful cities in China. To many, it is also one of the most romantic.

Beaches that stretch for miles, the numerous old villas with its distinctive red-tile roofs, the Badaguan Bay seemingly always in a verdant shroud — others cities pale against this Qingdao backdrop.

Rarely does one find mountain, beach and sea so close to one another as in Qingdao. One surmises the creator's hand in this natural endowment upon Qingdao.

"Facing the great ocean, spring is warm and flowers will blossom" is part of a poem by the Chinese poet, Haizi that is remembered by folks till today. This is perhaps more than a poem; it is the dream of most folks to live by the sea. The delicate morning view when the sea and the sky are enveloped as one. By day, the sea whips up its waves incessantly in a show of life. And by evening all this simmers down to a quiet serenade. This does well up feelings. Folks do feel nearness to eternity.

2008年举办奥运帆船赛场的青岛，是中国最美丽及最浪漫的城市，无论是黄海的碧涛或是八大关的浓荫，或是青岛啤酒的狂欢，或是旧时留下的红顶别墅，都令其他城市黯然失色。山水相连，潮涌一色，鬼斧神工，疑是人间，人们无不感叹青岛，真是上天的造化。

“面朝大海，春暖花开”——中国诗人海子的诗句至今仍然流传。面朝大海的生活，也是大多数人的生活梦想，自晨时海天一色，至日间碧涛起伏，至入夜喁语绵绵，大海的多情与深情，给人们永恒的向往。
