Three Meals In America

Most people in America eat three meals a day. They have breakfast in the morning, lunch at noon and dinner at night. They often eat breakfast and lunch in a hurry. They have one or two sandwiches or hamburgers and then drink some fruit juice or coffee for breakfast. Sometimes they have their lunch in McDonald's. They can get their lunch quickly there. Time is important to them. But they have more time for dinner. They usually eat a lot. They drink soup, eat meat, vegetables and some bread at dinner time. They drink milk, fruit juice, coffee or tea at dinner time, too. Some people don't like to eat too much. They have desserts: pie, cake, ice-cream.
