PREFACE

After the publication of my two bibliographies on the studies on the Dream of the Red Chamber: A Selected and Classified Bibliography and A Supplement to the Selected and Classified Bibliography on the Dream of the Red Chamber, I have been able to gather much new material from Taiwan. This bibliography which includes only publications about the Dream of the Red Chamber in Taiwan involves 925 titles of articles and books during 1950 to 1982.

The style of this book continues to follow the two previous bibliographies, using the Wade-Giles Romanization, and carries two indexes and an appendix. All titles of each chapter also appear in Chinese characters, enabling both Chinese and foreign scholars to use this bibliography without difficulty.

To compile such a bibliography has involved a great deal of hard work which expands my own research work and should assist those who appreciate such an instrument for their own study. With this feeling I plan to continue my efforts in this field and hope that this new supplement will be as useful as my previous two bibliographies have been to those who are serious students of the Dream of the Red Chamber.
