The students at Dogooder Junior High School had a love-hate relationship with Mr. Peemple. He was their English teacher.

At times, he could be scary. When he was angry, his face got redder and redder until he looked like he would explode into a million bits.

But just when you thought that he was the meanest teacher in school, he would do something nice. Sometimes he passed students who should have failed by giving them extra points just for writing their names correctly.

That's why when Mr. Peemple took a month long vacation, they were a little sad. In fact, they even missed him. They were going to get a new substitute teacher. They didn't know much about her except that her name was Ms. Dragoen and that she was from Roswell.

When the students heard that she was from a town called Roswell, they were very excited. Everyone knew about Roswell. It was very famous. The people of Roswell said that long ago, an alien spacecraft had crashed in their town. They also said that they saw aliens come out of the UFO. No one knows what happened to the aliens after that; they mysteriously disappeared. Maybe Ms. Dragoen had seen an alien, or maybe she had even seen a UFO. They couldn't wait to meet her.

On Monday morning, everyone was sitting down waiting for the new teacher to arrive. They were all talking about aliens and UFO's.

Suddenly, the door opened and everyone stopped talking. In walked the new teacher. She walked to the front of the classroom and turned around. Oh no! She didn't look friendly. She didn't look like the kind of person that you could talk to about aliens. In fact, she LOOKED LIKE AN ALIEN HERSELF!

Ms. Dragoen was very tall. She was the tallest person the students had ever seen. There was something strange about her head. It was very large; it looked TOO large.

Ms. Dragoen was also very thin. She had long hair that was tied up. But her face was the scariest. It was so white that she looked dead. She had large eyes. Her lips were so thin that you almost couldn't see them. Her nose was also very big and had three moles on it. She wore glasses that made her eyes look even bigger. She didn't smile. She looked mad.

"She's the strangest person I've ever seen," thought Amy Smith.
