Swiss Robinson

A Storm at Sea

Long ago, my family and I were sent to help start a colony. This colony was close to New Guinea. We knew we would miss our home in Switzerland but we were very excited. We had never sailed the Pacific Ocean before.

海上的暴风雨

The trip started out pleasant enough. We were soon taken by surprise, however, when a terrible storm hit.

For a week, our ship was tossed about by the violent storm. The winds were fierce and the waves were high.

1尺 久以前,我和我的家人被送去协助开拓一个殖民地。这个殖民地靠近新几内亚,我们知道我们会想念在瑞士的家,但仍然十分兴奋。我们可从来没有在太平洋航行过呢!

这趟旅程在出发时是相当愉快的。然而,当一 场可怕的暴风雨袭来的时候,我们立刻就感到措手 不及了。

在整整一个星期里,我们的船被凶猛的暴风雨打得四处翻滚,风势劲猛,波涛汹涌。

By the end of the week, our ship couldn't stand any more. It began to leak and pieces of the ship began to break off. Also, the storm had caused us to lose our way and many of the sailors were frightened.

My wife Elizabeth and our four sons were frightened, too. I tried my best to reassure them.

"Do not worry, children," I said to them. "Everything will be okay. Don't cry, Elizabeth. Try to have faith."

My spirits lifted when I heard one of the sailors yell that he had spotted land. I was thankful that my family and I were safe.

But my happiness did not last long. Just as I was about to tell my wife the good news, we crashed into a rock. I heard a loud noise and the ship began to fill with water.

The captain and all the sailors ran past us knocking us out of the way. My youngest son, Francis, started to cry but I told him he must stay calm.

到了那个星期的末尾, 我们的船再也撑不住 了。它开始漏水、船身开始一片一片解体。同时、 暴风雨使我们迷了路,很多船员都感到惊慌。

"Don't move!" I warned my family. "If you stay where you are, you will be safe. The water hasn't gotten this far yet. So don't leave this area. I'm going up to the deck to see what we can do."

When I reached the deck, I discovered that things did not look good. The water was coming faster now and the sailors had taken all the lifeboats. I was terribly upset when I saw this, because there was no way for us to make it to shore without a lifeboat.

I decided the best thing to do was to wait until the storm stopped. The part of the boat my family was in was between the rocks. We should be safe for the night. I hoped we would be able to make our way to land the next morning.

When I returned to my family, Elizabeth had made some supper. After dinner, we put the boys to sleep. My oldest son, Fritz, decided to stay awake. He knew we were in danger and he wanted to help.
