三、阅读理解

A

When you are in England, you must be very careful in the streets because traffic drives on the left.
Before you cross a street, you must look to the right first and then the left.

If the traffic lights are red, the traffic must stop.
Then people can cross the road. If the traffic lights are green, the traffic can go on, people must not cross.

In the morning and in the evening, when people go to or from work, the streets are very busy. The traffic is very dangerous then.

When you go by bus in England, you have to be careful, too. Always remember that the traffic moves on the left. So you must be careful. Have a look first, or (否则) you will go the wrong way.

In many English cities, there are big buses with two floors. You can sit on the second floor. From there you can see the city very well. It's very interesting.

16. In England the traffic drives _____.

A. on the right B. in the middle

C. on the left D. in the right

17. When the traffic lights are red, the traffic must
_____.

三、任务型阅读

Dear Linda,

Thanks for your letter. I'm glad to hear you can come on Sunday. When you drive over to my house, it's easy to find the station. It's a little difficult after that. So here are some instructions (说明): Drive past the station. Don't turn left into Garden Road. Just go along New Street. There's a football ground on your left. Go straight ahead, past the bank, and turn left into Green Road. Turn left again into High Street. River Street is the first on the right. My house is on the right, across from a school.

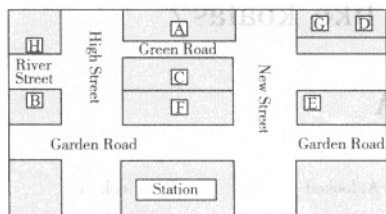

See you on Sunday!

Love,
Ann
