编写特点

本套教程重视培养学习者在课堂上的主动性,即使在初级水平阶段,也鼓励学习者练习使用语言。 本套教程注重奠定词汇和语法基础,同时通过各种真实情景中的任务型活动逐步实现用英语自由交 流的目标。

▶ 词汇

打好词汇基础是成功交流的第一步, 也是关键的一步。为此, 本套教程强调词汇的学习与巩固。

学生用书各单元的词汇板块(Vocabulary/Wordspot)通常引入与本单元话题相关的常用词汇,同时提供相关的短语搭配和"语块"(比句子长、比段落短的语言单位),这样学习者可以学习和记忆更多的扩展词汇,达到事半功倍的效果。学生用书中还设计了丰富的听、说、读、写活动和真实情景下的语言运用(Real life)练习,以期学习者能够学以致用,不仅学会运用词汇,更重要的是不断提高英语交流能力,增强自信心。

学生用书所附词汇手册或小词典以及练习册中针对词汇的专门训练,可以帮助学生根据需要学习更多的词汇,培养自主学习能力。

▶ 语法

自信的交流还需要坚实的语法基础。为此,学生用书每个单元设计了 2—4 个语言重点(Focus/Language focus)或语法扩展板块(Grammar extension)。单元结构通常以阅读(Reading)和听力(Listening)练习引入新的语言点,然后紧跟语言重点或语法扩展板块,讲解重要语法规则,并伴随大量练习,最后通过积极的、个性化的交流活动(Communication activities)来运用语言。另外,练习册和教师用书中都配有相应的语法辅助练习,供学习者课上或自学使用。

▶ 任务型教学

学习者应成为语言的主动使用者,而不是被动的接受者。因此,学生用书每单元都设计了一个交际任务板块(Task)。交际任务是让学习者利用已学的词汇和语法进行交流,用英语解决现实生活中遇到的问题,如交流个人信息、描述人或事、设计方案、作出计划或决策、讨论问题等,其着重点是交流的"成果",而非"语言练习"本身。

另外,针对学习者在完成交际任务过程中可能遇到的语言障碍,每个单元都设计了任务准备环节 (Preparation for task) 和实用语言板块 (Useful language),为学习者提供充足的语言支持,同时减轻教师的备课负担,从第3级开始,交际任务板块还特别设计了个性词汇栏 (Personal vocabulary box),鼓励学生向教师询问自己想要表达个人情感或经历的词汇,并积累起来,培养良好的学习习惯。

▶ 自我评估体系

语言学习总是伴随着遗忘。为此,本套教程设计了科学的复习和测试体系,帮助学生及时巩固和检验学习成果。学生用书每个单元结尾都设计了单元测评板块(Do you remember?),用于测试学习者每单元语言的掌握情况;每隔几个单元设计一个巩固单元(Consolidation),用于强化和温习所学知识,另外,每级教师用书都包含了多套阶段测试题(Tests),供教师选用。

▶ 网络资源支持

学习者和教师可以登录《朗文当代英语教程》的教学网站 (www.longman.com/cuttingedge),获取有关本套教材的辅助教学建议、文化介绍、课堂活动等网络资源,还可以和世界各地的教材使用者交流互动。

本级单元结构

Analysis

1 Auxiliary verbs in questions

a To form questions in English we normally need an auxiliary verb. Use one of the auxiliary verbs below to reconstruct the questions in the recording. Then listen again and check your answers.

are is do does have has was were did b Ask and answer the questions with a partner.

2 Auxiliary verbs in answers

The long answers below are not very natural. How can we shorten them using auxiliaries?

- a Do you live near here? Yes. I live near here.
- b Do the rest of your family speak English?

  My brother speaks English, but my parents don't speak English.

Now read Language summary A on page 140.

Practice

Make questions from the following words. Use the pronoun you in each case.

For example:

Where exactly / live?

Where exactly do you live?

- a How / get here from your house?
- b have / any special reason for learning English?
- c How long / be / in this class?
- d Whose class / in / last year (term, month)?
- e do / anything special last night?
- f What sort of music / like?
- g all your family / live in the same town as you?

Choose one question from above or think of another question of your own to ask each student in the class. Walk around the class and ask each student a different question. Then tell the rest of the class what you discovered.

Pronunciation

- 1 (1.2] Listen to the following questions and answers and underline the stressed (strong) words.
  - a Do you live near here? Yes, actually, I do.
  - b Did you do anything special last night? No, I didn't.
  - c Do you come from Spain?No, I don't I come from Argentina.
  - d Do all your family live here?My parents and grandparents do, but my sister doesn't any more.

What kind of words are stressed?

- 2 What happens to the pronunciation of Do you ...? and Did you ...? at the beginning of the questions? Listen again and repeat, paying attention to the stressed and weak words.
- 3 Discuss in pairs what questions you would ask in the following situations.

For example:

You don't know what 'eyebrow' means.

What does 'eyebrow' mean?

a You want to know the English word for

- b You don't know how to pronounce a word.
- c You don't know how to spell 'eyebrow'.
- d You don't know which page the teacher is looking at.
- e You want to know what tonight's homework is.
- f You didn't hear what the teacher said properly.
- g You would like your teacher to write 'paperclip' on the board.

(1.3] Now listen to the questions and check your answers.

Think of some other questions you often need to ask in class. Make a poster for the wall to remind you how to ask these questions.

Vocabulary

People around you

a) Check the meaning and pronunciation of the words in the box in your mini-dictionary or with your teacher. Then write the words in the correct column below.

best friend	cousin	classmate	stranger
acquaintance	colleague	ex-boyfriend	flatmate
headteacher	niece	mother-in-law	neighbour
parent	partner	relative	step-mother

family	friends	work	school	other

- b) Can you add any other words to each group?
- [1.4] You will hear some instructions. Listen and write your answers in the shapes below.

3 Swap books with your partner. Look at what your partner has written and ask questions to find out the meaning of the names and numbers.

Why did you write 'nine'?

Speaking and reading

- a) You are going to read an article about the changing state of the family. Look at the following statements and check the meaning of the words in bold in your mini-dictionary or with your teacher.
- More young people are moving away from home and leaving their family roots.
- Marriage is becoming less important to many young people.
- Families are spending less time together.
- The divorce rate is rising.
- More parents are bringing their children up alone without a partner.
- More women are having careers rather than starting families
- The average family is getting smaller as the birthrate falls.
- b) In groups, discuss which of these things are happening in your country and why.
- Read the main part of the article and tick ( ) the topics above if they are mentioned.

A quiet revolution?

As divorce rates rise and fewer couples bother with marriage, we ask if the traditional nuclear family is becoming a thing of the past.

While you are reading this article, somewhere in the United States two couples will get married and another will get divorced. One in three American children now live with only one parent, and the United States is not alone in this: in Canada and France the divorce rate has doubled in the last twenty-five years, and in Hungary and Greece it has increased by 50 per cent. Even in Japan, where the traditional family is still strong, divorce went up by 15 per cent between 1980 and 1995.

What is more, the nature of the family is changing. In Sweden and Denmark, around half of all babies are now born to unmarried parents, and in the United Kingdom and France more than a third. Even in Ireland, traditionally the most Catholic country in Europe, the rate of births outside marriage is 20 per cent.

Read the article again. Which one of the following statements is not true according to the information in the main text?

- a Although there is not very much divorce in Japan, there is more than before.
- b Although Ireland is strongly Catholic, quite a lot of Irish people are now having children without getting married.
- c Although families in Spain and Italy were often big in the past, these days they are becoming smaller.
- d Although a lot of people in France have children without getting married, marriage is becoming more popular there again now.
- e Although there are a lot of divorces in the United States, there are not as many as there were fifteen or twenty years ago.

Work in pairs. Student A should read the text about Mi-ran Lee, and Student B the text about Nathalie Guérin. Then tell your partner details of the family in the text. What are the most important differences between Mi-ran Lee's family and Nathalie Guérin's family?

Discuss the following questions in groups.

- How common are families like Nathalie's and Mi-ran's in your country?
- What do you think are the advantages and disadvantages for each type of family?

Mi-ran Lee

Mi-ran Lee (32) lives in Seoul with her husband, He-soo Kim (36), and her two sons, Chul-soo (6) and Dong-min (4). He-soo is a manager in an electronics company; Mi-ran worked as a secretary in the same company before her marriage eight years ago, but since then has been a full-time housewife. She has no plans to return to work: she believes it is essential that she is at home with her family, especially since He-soo, like most Korean executives, is expected to work very long hours. He often doesn't arrive home until after the boys are in bed.

Families are also getting smaller. The average Turkish family had seven members in 1970; today it has only five. And in Spain and Italy, where families were always traditionally large, the birthrate was the lowest in the developed world in 1995. This fall in the birthrate is due in part to the fact that, as more women have careers, they are waiting longer and longer to start a family. The age at which the average woman has her first baby is now 28 in Western Europe, and it is getting later.

So the nuclear family is clearly changing, but is it in danger of disappearing completely?

The truth is that it is still too early to tell. In some countries these patterns are actually reversing. In the United States, Scandinavia and the United Kingdom, the birthrate is rising once more; and in Denmark, for example, marriage is becoming more popular again. In the United States, the divorce rate in fact fell by 10 per cent between 1980 and 1990, and it is continuing to fall.

Perhaps a new revolution is beginning?

Nathalie Guérin

Nathalie Guérin (35) lives in Montrouge, a suburb of Paris, with her 4-year-old daughter, Emilie. She works part-time as a chemistry teacher in a local secondary school. She and Patrice, Emilie's father, are now separated; Patrice lives in Orléans, about 100 km away, with his new partner, Dominique. Emilie sees her father on alternate weekends, and, says Nathalie, 'has a close relationship with him'.

Language focus 2

Analysis

- 1 How are the Present Simple and Continuous formed? Underline all the examples above.
