前言

写作是英语学习的难点,也是中国广大英语学习者亟待提高的一项技能。在多年教学工作中我们发现,很多英语学习者都会面临这样的窘境:背诵了大量的词汇,掌握了复杂的语法,却依然写不出地道的英语文章,在考试中得不到理想的分数,在工作中很难应用自如。造成这种局面的原因之一,往往是由于我们的教学工作忽略了中西文化差异和思维模式的不同。

《地道英语写作教程(上、下册)》力图从文化比较的角度出发,以思维认知层面的分析为基础,从用词、句法、标点、修辞表达和段落等五方面的基本写作要素入手,全面、具体地分析中英文表达在各个层次的差异及特点,有助于更好地掌握英语写作的技巧,迅速提高写作水平。同时将常见的写作类型体裁分类讲解,并结合当下英语考试中常考的写作题型,注重实用、实践性。

本书面向大学本科生、研究生以及中高级英语学习者,可以作为常规课堂教材来指导学生全面提高语言素质和写作水平,也可以作为实践性写作或写作应试指导教材的辅导用书。

1. 本书结构

Words

Lead-in Question

How many words do you know? How many words can you use in writing practice?

Generally speaking, a Chinese university student has a vocabulary of about 5,000 words, but to write an article of several hundred words is a great difficulty for him. One reason is that most of the words in his mind are passive words( words that can only be recognized in reading and listening but not used in writing). Another reason for this phenomenon is that overemphasis is put on the quantity of the remembered words, the detailed and thorough understanding of which is ignored. So in practice, words can not be used properly.

In the preface of The Right Word at the Right Time, the author says, “Using the right words at the right time is rather like wearing appropriate clothing for the occasion: it is a courtesy to others, and a favor to yourself—a matter of presenting yourself well in the eyes of the world.” This unit will mainly explain how to use right words at the right time, i. e. the aspects that an excellent learner should know about a word.

In order to use words correctly, the differences between Chinese and English words can not be ignored. The clear distinction between Chinese and English words mainly lies in word form and cultural connotation. Since the differences in form are grammatical and have been learned in the initial period of English study, the focus of this part will be on the cultural connotations of words.

In Chinese and English, because of the differences in cultural background, the same word or thing may represent different cultural connotations. Lion is the king of animals in English culture and represents “bravery” and “stateliness”. The English people take lion as the symbol of their country. The “British Lion” is used to refer to England. And in English, there are a lot of idioms related with lion. However, in Chinese, tiger is the king of the animals and is used to represent “bravery” and “courage”. So when the English idioms with lion are translated into Chinese, the “lion” should be changed to “tiger”: “play oneself in the lion’s mouth(置身虎穴)”, “come in like a lion and go out like a lamb(虎头蛇尾)”, “like a key in a lion hide(狐假虎威)”, “a lion in the way(拦路虎)”, etc.

Another example is the animal dragon. In Chinese, dragon is respected and is the symbol of the king. However, in the west, dragon is an evil animal. Also, owl is the symbol of wisdom in English but the omen of bad news in Chinese.

This kind of words are numerous in English. The writer should be very careful in using them. Otherwise, serious misunderstanding may occur.

1. 1 Meanings of a word

In the world of English words, there are two phenomena: polysemy (一词多义性) and monosemy (多词一义性). In order to understand the English words thoroughly and put them in practical use, the learners should know this “double nature” of English words first. In this section, we will put emphasis on polysemous words and their meanings in different contexts. And the nature of monosemy will be introduced in Section 1. 3.

1. 1. 1 Polysemy of words

In order to make full use of one word, a writer should know its multi-layer of meanings.

Tips

了解一个词的用法首先要查词典。然而,仅仅查词典还是不够的,要通过广泛的阅读,把词放到具体的语境中去学习,才能学到词的真实含义和确切用法。

1. 2 Use words correctly

7

To use words correctly means to be grammatically correct in word usage, which mainly includes accidence(词法), collocation and tenses. Since this is a writing book instead of a grammatical one, we will mainly introduce the aspects in which the Chinese students tend to make mistakes.

1. 2. 1 The singular and plural forms of a special group of nouns

Here we do not intend to explain the grammatical rules for the change of the word forms, but instead focus on a special group of nouns. These nouns can be both countable and uncountable, and have different meanings in these two cases. The writer should be very careful in using this kind of nouns.

Read the following sentences and pay attention to the meanings and forms of the boldfaced nouns.

Sample 1. 8

Wood:

- ① Furniture made of wood is good for health. 木质家具有益健康。(wood:木材)
- ② He lived in a wood and depended on himself. 他住在一个小树林里,自给自足。(wood:树林,森林,林地)
