Section C

Directions: In this section you will hear a recorded short passage. The passage will be read three times. During the second reading, you are required to write down in the blanks the words or phrases that you hear. The third reading is for you to check your writing. Now the passage will begin.

I'm nervous about college. The seniors, _____ 11 _____, even the sophomores... they all seem so much older than me. I mean... I don't look like a freshman, in fact I probably looked more like a freshman 2 or 3 years ago, just because I'm 6 feet tall, and my face says I'm 20, but in my mind I'm still going into the 10th grade. I'm not ready for college. There are boys, and _____ 12 _____, and getting a job! There are parties which every little girl _____ 13 _____ about, and driving, and even the _____ 14 _____ for a part-time job. I mean, I'm just not ready. These next four years of my life will determine EVERYTHING! If I got pregnant, _____ 15 _____, had bad grades, or just didn't do anything about college, it could affect me PERMANENTLY. I have to get good grades, so I can get a good job, and have a nice house. Good job and nice house... all will be determined by the next four years of my life.

Congratulations! You’ve been accepted into college. You’re excited and maybe a little bit nervous. What can you expect? Read on for our advice.

Prepare yourself for a new life at college

Entering college is like starting a new phase of life. You will have to adjust to your new surroundings. Try to do everything by yourself and learn to stand on your own two feet.

Learn to enjoy the hardships

College is a place where teenagers become adults and academia meets society. It’s a to a local campus. Without doubt, though, the most dramatic freshman year is for those living away from home.

On some of those long, seemingly endless nights of studying and writing, it will be only natural for you to long for (向往) the good old days. Hang in there. These down periods will pass. Whatever you do, don't make major decisions about your major, your courses, or even your roommates during one of these blue periods. Things always look better in the morning.

You'll make a lot of new friends. Continue to be yourself. Don't strike a pose or play the role of someone you're not. Select your friends with the same care and patience you have always used. Believe it or not, your college friendships will be among the most satisfying and enduring relationship in your life. It's always exciting to discover how wonderfully diverse (多样化的) college relationships can be.

You'll also be on your own, your own boss (more or less) 24 hours a day. Enjoy your newfound freedom. Sleep in until the afternoon on a light class day. Explore the local town or suburbs with one or two of your new friends. Remember, though, with freedom comes responsibility. Just find your own style.

41. The main difference between high school and college is that _____.
 A. you will have more freedom                      B. you will have no doubt
 C. you will live away from home                      D. you will be much happier
42. What does the author mean by saying "blue periods" in the second paragraph?
 _____
 A. Periods in blue color.                                      B. Surprising periods.
 C. Sad periods.    D. Happy periods.
43. When you make friends, you should _____.
 A. do as your friends do                                      B. be yourself
 C. strike a pose    D. play the role of someone you're not
44. College friendship is _____.
 A. the most satisfying of your life
 B. the most enduring relationship in your life
 C. wonderfully diverse
 D. A, B and C
45. The sentence in the last paragraph, "You'll also be your own boss (more or less) 24 hours a day", means _____.
 A. you will become a boss
 B. you will become a boss by yourself

C. you do not have anyone telling you what to do and you make your own decisions

D. A, B and C

Task 3

Directions: The following is an introduction of Peking University Library. After reading it, you should complete the information by filling in the blanks marked 46 through 50 in the table below. For each blank, you should write no more than 3 words.

Peking University Library was founded in 1902 under the name Capital University Book Collection Building. After the revolution (革命) of 1911, it gained its present name. Around the May 4th Movement of 1919, Peking University became one of the centers for revolutionary activities. Some of the revolutionary leaders, such as Li Dazhao and Mao Zedong, worked in the library. Many well-known scholars (学者), including Zhang Shizhao, Yuan Tongli and Xiang Da, had been library directors. In 1952, after the nationwide readjustment (重新调整) of colleges and universities, the library moved with Peking University to the former Yenching University (燕京大学) campus, and the Yenching University Library was incorporated (纳入) into the Peking University Library. Peking University library also obtained collections from other universities, and it finally formed the present collection centered in the former Yenching University Library building. In 1975, a new library building was founded in the center of the campus. At that time, it was the best library with the greatest building area and the best building conditions in China. On May 4th 1998, the centennial anniversary of Peking University, the new library building was constructed, symbolizing (象征) the new beginning of the library's march towards modernization. The well-known Hong Kong entrepreneur, Honorary Doctor of Peking University, Mr. Li Ka Shing financially sponsored the construction.
