Olympic Arena

The most important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part, just as the most important thing in life is not the triumph but the struggle. The essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well.

参加奥运会最重要的目的是参与,而非赢得冠军;就像生活最重要的是奋斗,而不是成功;最本质的事情不是征服,而是战斗不息。

The Finnish track-and-field athlete Paavo Johannes Nurmi is considered the finest runner of all time. He was known as the Flying Finn for his success.

Paavo Johannes Nurmi was born on June 13, 1897 in Abo (Turku). Through his training methods he exerted a strong influence on the development of competitive running. His innovative practice of running with a stopwatch in his hand enabled him to pace himself and run at a consistent speed. At the 1920 Olympic Games in Antwerp, Belgium, Nurmi won a gold medal in the 10,000-meter track race. He also won the 10,000-meter cross-country race, leading the Finnish squad to a victory in the team category of the event, in which the results of competitors from each country were combined to determine the winning team. Nurmi placed second in the 5,000-meter race.

On 10 July, 1924, at the Paris Games, Nurmi performed one of the greatest feats in Olympic history. First he won the 1,500m. Then, two hours later, he won the 5,000m. Two days later, on one of the hottest days in Parisian history, Nurmi won the 10,000m cross-country race by 1 minute 24.6 seconds and gained another gold medal in the team cross-country event. The following day, while most of the other runners were recuperating,
