Miao Fabao was born in Zhenjiang, Jiangsu Province in 1936. He is now a member of the Chinese Printmakers Association, a member of the Chinese Art Educators society, a member of the Jiangsu branch of the Chinese

Artists Association, the president of the Changzhou Artistic Calligraphy Education Research Institute and a high level art lecturer of the Changzhou Liu Guojun Vocational Education Centre.

Miao Fabao was graduated from the university in 1960. In his early years he took lessons in painting from Lü Fengzi and Zhao Lianghan. In 1962 he entered a class for advanced creation of the traditional Chinese painters and printmakers in Jiangsu. There he received instructions from the well known painters Fu Baoshi, Qian Songyan, Ya Ming, Wu Junfa and Zhang Xinyu, and Miao Fabao has become a painter of quite great attainments. For many years except his work as a teacher he explored the mystery of the tradition and went deep into the quiet and beautiful waterside villages in the south of the Yangtze River and the imposing Northwest China to paint from life. He has produced lots of works and for many times he took part in the nationwide exhibitions and held five personal exhibitions. Some of his works were selected for the exhibitions in Japan, the United States, Canada, Britain, Finland, Norway, Germany, Singapore, Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan. Some were collected by the art galleries and museums at home and abroad and the memorial halls of Wang Xizhi, Yun Nantian, Huang Binhong, Duan Yucui, Confucius, Xibaipo and the Song Tombs.

Miao Fabao's brief biography, works and photographs have been included in the dictionaries published at home, such as A Dictionary of Contemporary Painters, Calligraphers and Seal Cutters, A Magnificent Spectacle of Painting and Calligraphy, A Grand Sight of Contemporary International Calligraphy and Seal Cutting, A Collection of Choice Specimens of Contemporary Masters of Calligraphy and Seal Cutting and A Dictionary of Contemporary Cultural Artists.
