Magistrate of Zhenping County People's Government Zhao Jinwen 1-764

Zhenping County is located in the southwest of Henan province, bordering with the urban area of Nanyang city. Under it jurisdiction, there are 12 town cities, I towns and 409 administrative villages with a gross area of 1500 sq.km, where mountain areas, hilly lands and flatlands take up a third respectively. Zhenping, by the stste, has been named "the Hometown of Jade carvings" "the Home town of Carpet making" "the Hometown of Fancy Gold Fishes". For years Zhenping has been seizing the opportunities to improve quickly and apparently reinforcing it's ecomomic strength. Great changes have taken place both in the county and towns and the social undertakings have been homonously push forward in a coordination way.

Zhenping always boasts of its long history and splendid culture. Early in 1226, the third year of Jinai Emperor Zhenping belonged to Shen State (Now its Nanyang) where the famous poet Yuan Haowen was appointed as the head of the county. In its brilliant history Zhenping has brought forth a group of outstanding figures. It's just the native bormplace of Pen Xuefeng, a famous modern millidary officer, and Guo Yang sheng, a revolutionary martyr. Rich in mineral resources and historical relics. Wuduo Mount, Three Ponds, Zhaowan Reservoir, Doupuo Reservoir, etc. all of the sceneries are with natural beauty, while the Martyry Museum of Peng Xuefeng officer, the ancient Puti Temple, the valley of Jade Carvings etc., all of the cultural sceneries are well-known for it's special Characteristics. Zhenping features with unique commercial and cultural true causes and in formation. From ancient times on , around the towns such as Jiasong, Stone Buddism Temple here gather many a great merchants.

Handcraft industral products such as jade carvings and silk articles have been famous far and near from Ming and Qing Dynasty. With strong commercial concept, there are more and more Zhenping natives pioneer their way doing business outside. All of them are intelligent, Capabable and adventurous as well as they are keen on business management, which are their remarkable personalities.

With favorable regional traffic and infrastructural facilities, Zhenping county is only 26km away to Nanyang city, where the state highways NO.312 and NO.207 intersect like a cross. The expressway NO.312 will soon Start construction. The mid-line project to divert water from the southern part of China to the north go straightly across the whole county. Three water plants have been finished with a water supply of 30,000 tons per day. The power plants vary from the capacity of 330 kV to 110 kV, offering abundant electric of 16,000 kW, h. and sufficient energy of 2 million gigacycle. Zhenping urbanization construction is getting better and better day by day. The county environment is developing more and more Charming and graceful. The Service functional facilities are improving more and more perfect.

With special economic advantages, Zhenping county trends to develop on the momentum of business boom. As one of the comprehensive model counties in Henan Province, both the leaders and the people are the forerunner to free themselves from old ideas. And they are motivated by the opening-up, highlightening I the growing theme, uphloding it's superiority, mainly targeting specialities. In general the nonpublic ownership economic operations Surrounded by township enterprises make a spurt of progress unexpectedly.

Featured industries such as jade carving, carpet-manufacturing, fancy fishes culturing, automobile spare parts, nursery and flower planting and construction and building materials advance swiftly and vigorously, which resulted in the special Zhenping phonominon such as the influencial "Zhenping Speed" and the miracle "creation Out of Nothing", thus attracted extensive attention with Henan Province. Furthermore, since last year, Zhenping County Committee and Government place weight on the theme of "Being realistic, Accent Development". They lunch the developing strategies as industralization, urbanization and civilianation. So as to develop in times and forge ahead with pioneering spirit Zhenping Government has been working on fulfilling important and practical events, quickening the steps forward, and emerging another new great uppsurge in economic growth. In 2003, moreover, another regional stratagies layout have been established. Zhengping will be expected to be "Central breading-through, regional advancement, economic rising areas with powerful items support" and according to the stratagical planning Zhenpong will be a "Powerful courty in Nawnyang, a Cement building materials base of Central china and a featured industries zone in china". Opened Zhenpong County is marching on the striving goal of ensuring the people a relatively comfortable life.
