Movie Overview

Legally Blonde

Director: Robert Luketic

Awards: 2 Golden Globe Nominations (提名)

Plot: Elle Woods (Reese Witherspoon) has it all.

She's the president of her sorority (女生联谊会), a Hawaiian Tropic girl, Miss June in her campus calendar, and, above all, a natural blonde (金发女郎). She dates the cutest fraternity (男大学生联谊会) boy on campus and wants nothing more than to be Mrs. Warner Huntington III. However, there's just one thing stopping Warner (Matthew Davis) from popping the question: Elle is too blonde. Growing up across the street from Aaron Spelling might mean something in LA (洛杉矶), but nothing to Warner's East-Coast blue blood family. So, when Warner packs up for Harvard Law and reunites with an old sweetheart from preparatory school, Elle rallies (召集) all her resources and gets into Harvard, determined to win him back. But Law School is a far cry from the comforts of her poolside (游泳池边) and the mall. Elle must wage the battle of her life, for her guy, for herself and for all the blondes who suffer endless indignities (侮辱) everyday.

Task II: Listen and repeat the following lines.

A New Day Has Come

A new day...

A new day...

I was waiting for so long

For a miracle to come

Everyone told me to be strong

Hold on and don't shed a tear

Through the darkness and good times

I knew I'd make it through

And the world thought I had it all

But I was waiting for you

Hush now

I see a light in the sky

Oh it's almost blinding me

Beginning of College Life UNIT 1

I can't believe I've been touched by an angel with love

*Let the rain come down and wash away
my tears*

Let it fill my soul and drown my fears

Let it shatter the wall for a new sun

A new day has come

Where it was dark now there's light

Where there was pain now there's joy

Where there was weakness I've found my strength

All in the eyes of a boy

Hush, now

I see a light in the sky

Oh it's almost blinding me

*I can't believe I've been touched by an
angel with love*

*Let the rain come down and wash away

Let it fill my soul and drown my fears

Let it shatter the walls for a new sun

How to Succeed in College

Academic success comes in many forms. For most students, it's a transcript that opens doors into great jobs or great graduate schools. For others, academic success also includes what happens outside of the classroom. With so much going on in college, though, how can you make sure you're headed down a path toward true academic success and toward a truly rewarding college experience?

Let Yourself Explore

You may arrive at college knowing that you are destined to become a teacher, a lawyer, a doctor, and an engineer. Or you may arrive not having the slightest idea about what you want to major in. No matter which end of the spectrum (范围) you're on, however, you should let yourself explore everything that your school has to offer academically. Take classes in a subject you've never taken before. Follow a passion that doesn't relate to your major. Just let yourself really learn from your environment.

Make Informed, Honest Choices and Enjoy the Consequences

There will undoubtedly be a lot of people giving you advice about what you should do during and after college. And while you may be in school to learn, you will, at some point, have to draw your own line in the sand. Pick a career and course of study that suits you, not your parents.

Pay attention to the fire in your belly and learn what you're truly passionate about. Make sure you're happy at your school. And once you've made a choice, feel confident in your decision and do all you can to learn from the resources around you.

Remember to Learn Outside of the Classroom

True, you spend a significant amount of time in class (and possibly in labs) learning new material. But what are you doing during the other hours of your week? How you spend your time outside of the classroom is a critical part of your college experience and, in a sense, of the education you receive while in school. Make the most of it! Join a club or organization that explores your interests and passions. Branch out and try something you've never done before. No matter what you do, make sure you do something that you can look back and be proud of.
