前言

高考在即,考生经过多月的复习准备已积累了大量的英语语言知识,现在需要我们运用语言规律和掌握的应试策略,试试自己是否能在仿真高考模拟试题中获得高分。这便是我们编写这本《高考英语情报志——十日考点解码》(模拟试题分册)的出发点。

浙江省高考自主命题始于 2004 年,但是书店所售的复习迎考模 拟题多为应付全国统考之用,少见专门针对浙江高考题型的复习用 书。本书主编率资深名师教授,认真总结研究本省历年真题,探索高 考命题趋势,并据此创制了高仿真模拟试卷。

精品的产生来自于对历史的细致考究,对趋势的科学把握和对质量的精益求精!只有在细致考究浙江省历年真题的基础上,才能发现命题者的思想脉络和设题重心;只有在逐年分析的基础上,才能把握命题发展的动态趋势,未来走向;只有斟词酌句、反复修正,才能保证模拟题设计的仿真品质。

参加本书编著的教师常年关注高考英语的命题方向和设题思路,通过对浙江省历年高考英语试卷的分析,总结出高考英语的命题特点:测重语言基础,提升语境意识,强调应用能力和重视思维能力。所以,本书的编著正是以此命题特点为轴线,将常考知识点及语篇有机串联,帮助考生由点到面地复习英语语言知识,并引领他们进入对语义、结构、语境、语篇的深层次理解,提高综合运用英语语言的能力。

本书的撰写参编人员采取合作一分工一再合作的模式,即共同协商,确定书稿的总体框架,商议解析模式;分工分章编写,明确责任;再次合作串稿,纠正重心偏移,避免话题重复,互质表达失误。上述编写模式确保了每一份试卷命题的科学性。编写者命题思路清晰,试题科学规范,稳中有新,稳中求进,注重与历年试题保持连续性和稳定性,体现适当的难度,保持较好的信度和效度,反映出浙江省英语高考未来走向。模拟试题注重挖掘学生素质能力,包括掌握基

础知识的能力,把握学科主干核心的能力,解决实际问题的能力,尤其强调对实践能力和创新能力的考查,体现了新课程理念。试题的内容及能力层次、试卷结构完全符合浙江省英语高考说明的要求,有利于纠正教学中普遍存在的随意增加学习内容、提高学习难度等倾向,从而减少了盲目的数量训练。编者们还选择教材中的主干知识、核心知识进行综合考查,注重回归教材,不强求对知识的机械记忆,有效地避免了"繁、难、偏、怪"的试题。模拟试题还在传统的基础上适当增加了难度,强化选拔功能。

本书由长期从事浙江省高考命题研究的浙江工商大学教授陈明瑶(博士)主编,该校资深命题教师参编,设计科学,思路独到,选题严谨,解析精辟。我们愿为广大考生和中学英语教师提供强有力的专业支持!《高考英语情报志——十日考点解码》(模拟试题分册),您的选择,我们的责任!

How to eat healthfully can be especially complex for working women who often have neither the desire nor the time to cook for themselves (or for anyone else). Registered dietitian(注册营养师)

Barhara Morrissey suggests that a few simple rules can help.

"Go for nutrient-dense foods," she suggests, "foods that contain a multiple of nutrients. For example, select whole wheat bread as a breakfast food, rather than coffee cake. Or drink orange juice rather than orange drink, which contains only a small percentage of real juice— the rest is largely colored sugar water. You just can't compare the value of these foods, the nutrient dense ones are so superior," she emphasizes.

Morrissey believes that variety is not only the spice of life — it's the foundation of a healthful diet. Diets which are based on one or two foods are not only virtually impossible to keep up the strength, they can be very harmful, she says, because nutrients aren't supplied in sufficient amounts or balance.

According to Morrissey, trying to find a diet that can cure your illnesses, or make you superwoman is a fruitless search. As women, many of us are too concerned with staying thin, she says, and we believe that vitamins are some kind of magic cure to replace food.

"We need carbohydrates(碳水化物), protein and fat — they are like the wood in the fireplace. The vitamins and minerals are like the match, the spark, for the fuel," she explains. "We need them all, but in a very different proportions. And if the fuel isn't there, the spark is useless."

- 41. From the first paragraph we know that working women _____
 - A. think cooking is especially complicated
 - B. do not share the same views with registered dietitians
 - C. are busy and not interested in cooking
 - D. are likely to eat healthfully
- 42. Orange juice is different from orange drink in that _____
 - A. it contains only a small percentage of real juice
 - B. it is natural, nutritious and prepared from real oranges
 - C. it is largely orange-colored sugar water
 - D. it produces nothing but calories

十日考点解码(模拟试题分册)

- 43. Many women take it for granted, according to passage that .
 - A. a balanced diet can result in being fat
 - B. staying thin and healthy are both possible
 - C. lack of variety in diets leads to staying thin
 - D. vitamins are some kind of substitutions (替代品) for food
- 44. By "if the fuel isn't there, the spark is useless", the author means
 - A. carbohydrates, protein and fat are enough to support a human life
 - B. vitamins and minerals are virtually of no value
 - C. carbohydrates, protein and fat are as important as vitamins and minerals
 - D. without carbohydrates, protein and fat, vitamins and minerals are of no use

A month after Hurricane Katrina, I returned home in New Orleans. There lay my house, reduced to waist-high rains, smelly and dirty.

Before the trip, I'd had my car fixed. When the office employee of the garage was writing up the bill, she noticed my Louisiana license plate. "You from New Orleans?" she asked. I said I was. "No charge," she said, and firmly shook her head when I reached for my wallet. The next day I went for a haircut, and the same thing happened.

As my wife was studying in Florida, we decided to move there and tried to find a rental house that we could afford while also paying off a mortgage (抵押贷款) on our ruined house. We looked at many places, but none was satisfactory. We'd began to accept that we'd have to live in extremely reduced circumstances for a while, when I got a very curious e-mail from a James Kennedy in California. He'd read some pieces I'd written about our sufferings for Slate, the online magazine and wanted to give us ("no conditions attached") a new house across the lake from New Orleans. It sounded too good to be true, but I replied, thanking him for his exceptional generosity, that we had no plans to go back. Then a poet at the University of Florida offered to let his house to me while he went to England on his one-year paid leave. The rent was rather reasonable. I mentioned the poet's offer to James Kennedy, and the next day he sent a check covering our entire rent for eight months.

Throughout this painful experience, the kindness of strangers has done much to bring back my faith in humanity. It's almost worth losing you worldly possessions to be reminded that people are really nice when given half a chance.

- 45. The garage employee's attitude towards the author was that of _____.
 - A. unconcern B. sympathy C. doubt D. tolerance
- 46. What do we know about James Kennedy?
 - A. He was a writer of an online magazine.
 - B. He was a poet at the University of Florida.
 - C. He offered the author a new house free of charge.
 - D. He learned about the author's sufferings via e-mail.
- 47. The author learned from his experience that _____.
 - A. worldly possessions can be given up when necessary
 - B. generosity should be encouraged in some cases
 - C. people benefit from their sad stories
 - D. human beings are kind after all
- 48. Which would be the best title for the text?
 - A. Terrible Hurricane Katrina
 - B. Hurricane Is Heartless While Strangers Are Kind
 - C. Study in Florida
 - D. The Importance of Helping Others

In June, 2007, a group of students from eight high schools in Winnipeg, the capital of Canada's Manitoba province, will begin test-launching (试发射) a satellite the size of a Rubik's cube.

D

The one-kilogram Win-Cub satellite, named for its home city and its shape, will be put into low orbit. Once in space, it can perform for a few months or up to several years, communicating information that could help find the signs of earthquakes.

There are 80 similar satellite projects worldwide, but this is the first high-school based program of its kind in Canada. 30 Manitoba high school students are having a hand in designing and building the satellite, in cooperation with aerospace (航空航天的) experts and 10 students from the University of Manitoba, and with support from two other organizations.

The Win-Cube project is not something that goes on a piece of paper; it is real-world engineering, allowing high school students to have an opportunity to learn more about the exciting world of engineering through their participation in this challenging program. It is also taken as a wonderful example of the unique partnerships within Manitoba. Designing, building and launching a satellite with high-school participation will bring this world-class educational project into reality and Manitoba closer to space. "These Manitoba high school students deserve congratulations for their enthusiasm, innovation (创新), and a strong love for discovery," said Education, Citizenship and Youth Minister Peter Bjomson. "We want to make science more relevant, interesting and attractive to high school students by showing them how classroom studies can relate to practical experience in the workplace or, in this case, in space," Bjomson added.

The Win-Cube program is mainly aimed at inspiring a strong desire for discovery on the part of the students. It also shows Manitoba's devotion to research and innovation and the development of a skilled workforce—all important drivers of knowledge-based economic growth.
