FOREWORD

There have been substantial and extensive developments in the law of insurance since the publication of the original Am Jur 2d Volumes 43 and 44 more than a decade ago. Each year there is a flood tide of reported decisions involving many new principles and types of insurance coverage. Because of the accumulated mass of new material, further supplementation of the original Am Jur 2d topic Insurance in a manner that keeps the legal profession abreast with the modern state of the law became impossible. A new text treatment was required.

In rewriting Insurance, old and rarely challenged doctrines, as well as historical matters, have been condensed and made more succinct. This approach has yielded a tightly written, updated, and comprehensive presentation of insurance law in the same number of volumes as the original Am Jur 2d treatment.
