WOOLMAN ON CONTRACT

FOREWORD

This edition marks a new stage in the evolution of this work. I am delighted that Gillian Black agreed to take on the task. As well as bringing the text up to date, she has also provided her own valuable insights into this fascinating subject. She has also adhered to the aim of the work, which is to provide a concise, readable introduction to the law of contract in Scotland.

Stephen Woolman

PREFACE TO FOURTH EDITION

My aim in preparing the 4th edition has been to update the text to reflect the many developments in the law of contract over the last nine years. I have sought to maintain its character as a concise introductory work, by focusing on material developments and avoiding change for change's sake. I am most grateful to Stephen Woolman for his guidance and support: preparing the 4th edition has been highly enjoyable as a consequence. I would also like to thank my colleagues Laura Macgregor and David Cabrelli and my research assistant Stephanie Law for their constructive and valuable input.
