Foreword

The Division of Corporation Finance responds to thousands of informal inquiries annually concerning the statutes, rules and regulations it administers. Although statements made by the Division's staff in response to these inquiries are intended to be helpful and instructive, they are not binding due to their highly informal nature. SEC Compliance and Disclosure Interpretations is a public compilation of selected responses to informal inquiries, which the Division originally developed for staff training purposes. This work previously went by the name SEC Telephone Interpretations Manual.

The C&DI guidance in this manual does not necessarily reflect the views and policies of the Commission or the Division of Corporation Finance. These interpretations are not rules, regulations, or statements of the Commission. Further, the interpretations do not necessarily contain a discussion of all material considerations necessary to reach the conclusions stated and therefore should not be relied on as definitive. Moreover, there can be no assurance that the information in this manual is current, as the positions expressed may change without notice.

As reproduced here, the interpretations are organized by chapter and supplemented with history information, tables of contents and a topical index. The work contains guidance issued through July 8, 2011, including the interpretations issued to reflect the Dodd-Frank Act amendments and subsequent rulemaking. Any C&DI guidance issued after publication of this work can be found at <http://www.sec.gov/divisions/corpfin/cfguidance.shtml>.
