The Authors

Lucien W. Valloni, Ph.D., is a partner at the well-known Swiss law firm of FRORIEP in Zurich and head of its sports law practice group as well as head of the litigation & arbitration practice group. FRORIEP was chosen in 2010 and 2011 by two different organizations as the best sports law firm of Switzerland and as the best sport law and arbitration firm of Switzerland.

He is known as one of the best sports lawyers in the Swiss market with an emphasis on sports litigation and arbitration. He has represented clients in numerous highprofile cases in the field of sport and other fields. His practice focuses especially on litigation and arbitration, sports and entertainment law, labour law as well as commercial law.

Lucien W. Valloni is a frequent lecturer at sports law conferences and has published various articles. Furthermore, he is President of the Swiss Association of Football Players (SAFP), Member of the FIFPro-Integrity-Committee, President of the Swiss Association of Icehockey Players (SAIP) and President of the World Association of Icehockey Players Unions (WAIPU). He is also a lecturer at Zurich University.

Thilo Pachmann, Ph.D., is a partner at Pachmann attorneys at law, a boutique style law firm in the heart of Zurich. His practice focuses on litigation and arbitration, especially in the field of sports law, intellectual property rights, commercial, entertainment law and IT law. Thilo Pachmann has published various articles on sports and corporate law, in particular his doctoral thesis on 'Sports Associations and Corporate Governance'. Furthermore, he is a frequent speaker and a lecturer at Zurich University.

Thilo Pachmann is a former top athlete and now a Vice-President of the Swiss Judo Federation (SJF) and responsible for its Olympic delegation. Furthermore, he is a member of the International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA) and President of its sport law commission.
