EXPLANATION

Volumes 1 and 1A contain the text of Articles 1 and 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code prepared under the joint sponsorship of the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. They replace the original volume published in 1968.

The increasing growth of litigation under the Code and the concomitant increase in judicial interpretations and constructions over the past eight years have necessitated the publication of these new volumes for convenient access to this ever growing body of law in order to facilitate reference and research.

The Code, which replaces the former Uniform Laws relating to sales, negotiable instruments, warehouse receipts, bills of lading, stock transfers, conditional sales and trust receipts, was originally approved by its sponsors and the American Bar Association in 1952, and was revised in 1958 to incorporate a number of changes that had been recommended by the New York Law Revision Commission and other interested agencies. Subsequent amendments that were deemed desirable in the light of experience under the Code were approved by the Permanent Editorial Board in 1962 and 1966, and most recently, in 1972 with the adoption of Revised Article 9.

All of the fifty states (Louisiana has adopted only Articles 1, 3, 4 and 5), together with the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands, have adopted the Code.

OFFICIAL COMMENTS

One of the indispensable features of these volumes consists of the Official Comments prepared under the auspices of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and The American Law Institute, which appear under each section. These Comments explain the purpose and intent of the sections and the changes in the prior law that were effected by the Code.

EXPLANATION

AMENDMENTS OF OFFICIAL TEXT

Various sections of the Code were amended by the Editorial Board in 1962 and 1966. Several sections were amended in 1972 to conform to the changes made by Revised Article 9. The changes effected by such amendments are explained in notes which follow the sections affected.

ACTION IN ADOPTING JURISDICTIONS

Another invaluable feature of this edition will be found in the alphabetical listing of jurisdictions under those sections wherein variations occur between the Official Text and the corresponding text of the adopting jurisdiction. Such notes also indicate the optional or alternative provisions in the text that have been enacted by the jurisdictions and the wording of provisions indicated by blanks in the Official Text.

In many jurisdictions, additional provisions that are not contained in the Official Text have been enacted. The text of such provisions is included under the subheading "Variations from Official Text", or, in the case of additional sections, will be found following the last section in the Code Article, or following the last section in a Part of an Article.

ANNOTATIONS OR NOTES OF DECISIONS

The annotations or constructions of the Uniform Commercial Code by the courts of the adopting jurisdictions are complete and up-to-date. The annotations cover all decisions of courts of record in the adopting jurisdictions, as well as those of the Supreme Court of the United States and other Federal courts, construing and applying the Code in the following:

An alphabetical index to the annotations or constructions of the Code by the courts will be found preceding the annotations under each section.

CROSS REFERENCES

Exhaustive references to other sections of the Code direct attention to related or qualifying provisions which should be consulted.

FORMS

References to various legal forms that are appropriate for use in transactions and proceedings related to the Uniform Commercial Code are carried under this heading and refer to forms contained in Uniform Laws Annotated—Uniform Commercial Code Forms.

LAW REVIEW COMMENTARIES

Copious references to informative articles and discussions in Law Reviews and other legal periodicals, relating to various aspects of the Uniform Commercial Code, appear at the beginning of each Article, and under sections to which they are pertinent.

LIBRARY REFERENCES

Another helpful feature of this edition consists of the references keyed to topics in West's General Digest, wherein cases from all jurisdictions on related material are annotated, and to sections of Corpus Juris Secundum which discuss the prevailing authority on related subject matter.

EXPLANATION

FOREWORD

An interesting and informative discussion on the origin and development of the Code and its adoption by the states is contained in a Foreword by the late William A. Schnader, Esq., who proposed the preparation of the Code in 1940.

TABLES

The Table of Adopting Jurisdictions at page one of the text lists the jurisdictions in which the Uniform Commercial Code has been adopted, the effective date and the statutory form of citation. The Disposition Table at page XXXVII of the prefatory material shows where sections of the prior Uniform Acts that have been replaced by the Code may be found in these volumes.

INDEX TO CODE

An alphabetical descriptive-word index to the text of the Uniform Commercial Code will be found at the back of the end volume of the Code.
