TO My Cousin Belle

BILLY-MARRIED

👰 A Sequel to "Miss Billy" and "Miss 🕵 Billy's Decision"

Bu Eleanor H. Porter

Author of "Pollyanna:" The GLAD Book (Trade Mark), "Cross Currents," "The Turn of the Tide," etc.

12mo, cloth decorative, with frontispiece in full color, decorative jacket. Net $1.25; carriage paid $1.40

In which the gifted author of "Pollyanna," the most popular book for the year 1913, scores another success and makes of the married life of adorable Billy Neilson - the heroine of the MISS BILLY books - and Bertram Henshaw a story of unusual tenderness and sweetness. There is a deal of delicious humor and common sense, too, in the story, and happiness in abundance, even in the trying days when the young bride finds herself bereft of a cook and burdened with the care of a Beacon Street household. But whether the weather be fair or threatening, she is "just Billy," happy when making someone's burden lighter, happier still with the advent of Bertram, Jr., and happiest of all when her husband is able to use his strong right arm again, even to paint the dreaded "face of a girl."

As is the case with all of Mrs. Porter's books, the story is "always life," gracefully and sympathetically presented, carrying with it a message of happiness.

THE CHRONICLES OF MADELYN MACK, DETECTIVE

In which are solved the mysteries of "The Purple Thumb," or "The White Orchids," "The Man with Nine Lives," "The Missing Bridegroom," "Cinderella's Slipper," etc.

By Hugh C. Weir

ş

12mo, cloth decorative, with a frontispiece in full color, from a painting by Wm. Van Dresser. Net $1.25; carriage paid $1.40

Ŷ

No field of fiction is more interesting than that of a detective, or professional investigator of mysteries, and it is easy to predict a popular welcome for this clever story of Mr. Weir's. The reader will be absorbed in following the clues which guided Madelyn Mack, the unique woman detective, in the solution of the strange mystery of "The Purple Thumb." And this is only one of her remarkable cases in a continuous series of adventures which constitute a tale of swift and dramatic action. Clever in plot and effective in style, the author has seized on some of the most sensational features of modern life, and the result is a detective novel that gets away from the beaten track of mystery stories in the first page and never returns to it.

WORKS OF

CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS

HAUNTERS OF THE SILENCES

Cloth, one volume, with many drawings by Charles Livingston Bull, four of which are in full color . . . $2.00 The stories in Mr. Roberts's new collection are the strongest and best he has ever written.

He has largely taken for his subjects those animals rarely met with in books, whose lives are spent "In the Silences," where they are the supreme rulers. Mr. Roberts has written of them sympathetically, as always, but with fine regard for the scientific truth.

"As a writer about animals, Mr. Roberts occupies an enviable place. He is the most literary, as well as the most imaginative and vivid of all the nature writers." — Brooklyn Eagle.

RED FOX

THE STORY OF HIS ADVENTUROUS CAREER IN THE RINGWAAK WILDS, AND OF HIS FINAL TRIUMPH OVER THE ENEMIES OF HIS KIND. With fifty illustrations, including frontispiece in color and cover design by Charles Livingston Bull.

Square quarto, cloth decorative . . . $2.00

"True in substance but fascinating as fiction. It will interest old and young, city-bound and free-footed, those who know animals and those who do not." — Chicago Record-Herald.

"A billiont elepator in particul history." — Philadelphia North

"A brilliant chapter in natural history." — Philadelphia North American.

THE KINDRED OF THE WILD

A BOOK OF ANIMAL LIFE. With fifty-one full-page plates and many decorations from drawings by Charles Livingston Bull. Square quarto, decorative cover $2.00 " Is in many ways the most brilliant collection of animal stories that has appeared; well named and well done." — John Burroughs.

THE WATCHERS OF THE TRAILS

"These stories are exquisite in their refinement, and yet robust in their appreciation of some of the rougher phases of woodcraft. Among the many writers about animals, Mr. Roberts occupies an enviable place."—The Outlook.

"This is a book full of delight. An additional charm lies in Mr. Bull's faithful and graphic illustrations, which in fashion all their own tell the story of the wild life, illuminating and supplementing the pen pictures of the author." — Literary Digest.

THE HOUSE IN THE WATER

With thirty full-page illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull and Frank Vining Smith. Cover design and decorations by Charles Livingston Bull.

12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Every paragraph is a splendid picture, suggesting in a few words the appeal of the vast, illimitable wilderness." - The Chicago Tribune.

THE HEART THAT KNOWS

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover "A novel of singularly effective strength, luminous in literary color, rich in its passionate, yet tender drama."—New York Globe.

EARTH'S ENIGMAS

A new edition of Mr. Roberts's first volume of fiction, published in 1892, and out of print for several years, with the addition of three new stories, and ten illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull.

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover $1.50 "It will rank high among collections of short stories. In 'Earth's Enigmas' is a wider range of subject than in the 'Kindred of the Wild." - Review from advance sheets of the illustrated edition by Tiffany Blake in the Chicago Evening Post.

BARBARA LADD

With four illustrations by Frank Verbeck.

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover . "From the opening chapter to the final page Mr. Roberts lures us on by his rapt devotion to the changing aspects of Nature and by his keen and sympathetic analysis of human character."— Boston Transcript.

CAMERON OF LOCHIEL

Translated from the French of Philippe Aubert de Gaspé, with frontispiece in color by H. C. Edwards.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Professor Roberts deserves the thanks of his reader for giving a wider audience an opportunity to enjoy this striking bit of French Canadian literature." — Brooklyn Eagle.

THE PRISONER OF MADEMOISELLE

With frontispiece by Frank T. Merrill. Library 12mo, cloth decorative.

$1.50

A tale of Acadia, — a land which is the author's heart's delight, — of a valiant young lieutenant and a winsome maiden, who first captures and then captivates.

THE HEART OF THE ANCIENT WOOD

With six illustrations by James L. Weston.

Library 12mo, decorative cover $1.50

"One of the most fascinating novels of recent days." — Boston Journal.

"A classic twentieth-century romance." — New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE FORGE IN THE FOREST

Being the Narrative of the Acadian Ranger, Jean de Mer, Seigneur de Briart, and how he crossed the Black Abbé, and of his adventures in a strange fellowship. Illustrated by Henry Sandham, R. C. A.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

A story of pure love and heroic adventure.

BY THE MARSHES OF MINAS

Library 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated . . . $1.50 Most of these romances are in the author's lighter and more playful vein; each is a unit of absorbing interest and exquisite workmanship.

WORKS OF GABRIELE D'ANNUNZIO

Signor d'Annunzio is known throughout the world as a poet and a dramatist, but above all as a novelist, for it is in his novels that he is at his best. In poetic thought and graceful expression he has few equals among the writers of the day.

He is engaged on a most ambitious work — nothing less than the writing of nine novels which cover the whole field of human sentiment. This work he has divided into three trilogies, and five of the nine books have been published. It is to be regretted that other labors have interrupted the completion of the series.

"This book is realistic. Some say that it is brutally so. But the realism is that of Flaubert, and not of Zola. There is no plain speaking for the sake of plain speaking. Every detail is justified in the fact that it illuminates either the motives or the actions of the man and woman who here stand revealed. It is deadly true. The author holds the mirror up to nature, and the reader, as he sees his own experiences duplicated in passage after passage, has something of the same sensation as all of us know on the first reading of George Meredith's 'Egoist.' Reading these pages is like being out in the country on a dark night in a storm. Suddenly a flash of lightning comes and every detail of your surroundings is revealed."—Review of "The Triumph of Death" in the New York Evening Sun.
