The Author<sup>1</sup>

Professor Timothy P. Glynn (born February 5, 1967, St. Paul, Minnesota, U.S.) received his undergraduate degree in Government from Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts, U.S., in 1989. He received his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Minnesota Law School in Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S., in 1994. While in law school, he served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Minnesota Law Review and was admitted to the Order of the Coif.

After law school, Professor Glynn clerked for the Honorable Donald P. Lay, United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, in St. Paul, Minnesota, U.S. He then practiced law as an associate at the firm of Leonard, Street and Deinard in Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S., focusing in the areas of securities, business, and employment litigation. In 1997, he returned to clerking, this time for the Honorable John R. Tunheim, United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In 1999, Professor Glynn joined the faculty of Seton Hall Law School, in Newark, New Jersey. He teaches in the employment and corporate areas, and is the author of an employment law case book and numerous articles.

Currently, Professor Glynn is the Miriam T. Rooney Professor of Law at Seton Hall Law School.

1. The author acknowledges the contributions of Professor Steven Willborn, the author of the prior version of this monograph.
