

GLOBAL TRADE LAW SERIES

---

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN WORLD INVESTMENT LAW

Edited by

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger

Markus W Gehring

Andrew Newcombe

Sustainable Development in World Investment Law

Edited by

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger

Markus W Gehring

Andrew Newcombe

Wolters Kluwer

Law & Business

Published by:

Kluwer Law International
PO Box 316
2400 AH Alphen aan den Rijn
The Netherlands
Website: www.kluwerlaw.com

Sold and distributed in North, Central and South America by:

Aspen Publishers, Inc.
7201 McKinney Circle
Frederick, MD 21704
United States of America
Email: customer.service@aspenpublishers.com

Sold and distributed in all other countries by:

Turpin Distribution Services Ltd.
Stratton Business Park
Pegasus Drive, Biggleswade
Bedfordshire SG18 8TQ
United Kingdom
Email: kluwerlaw@turpin-distribution.com

Printed on acid-free paper.

ISBN 978-90-411-3166-9

© 2011 Kluwer Law International BV, The Netherlands

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise without written permission from the publisher.

Permission to use this content must be obtained from the copyright owner. Please apply to: Permission Department, Wolters Kluwer Legal, 76 Ninth Avenue, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10011-5201, USA.
Email: permissions@kluwerlaw.com

Printed in Great Britain.

Sustainable Development in World Investment Law

Global Trade Law Series

---

VOLUME 30

---

Series Editor

ROSS BUCKLEY

Professor, Faculty of Law, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia

Associate Series Editor

ANDREAS ZIEGLER

Professor, Faculty of Law and Criminal Sciences, University of Lausanne, Lausanne, Switzerland.

Advisory Board

Kenneth W. Abbott, Professor of Law and Global Studies, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona.

William Alford, Professor of Law, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Bhupinder Chimni, Professor of International Law, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.

Bradly Condon, Professor of Law, Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México, Mexico City.

Thomas Cottier, Professor and Director of the World Trade Institute, University of Berne, Berne.

Martin Davies, Professor & Director, Maritime Law Center, Faculty of Law, Tulane University, New Orleans.

Xiang Gao, Professor of Law, China University of Politics and Law, Beijing.

Patricia Hansen, Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

Faizel Ismail, Head, Delegation of South Africa to the WTO.

Yong-Shik Lee, Professor of Law, St John's University, New York.

Petros C. Mavroidis, Professor, Columbia University School of Law, New York, and University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

*Mitsuo Matsushita, Professor of Law, Seikei University, Professor Emeritus,
The University of Tokyo, Japan.*

Armand de Mestral, Professor of Law, McGill University, Montreal.

Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann, Professor and Head of Law Department, European University Institute, Florence.

Asif Qureshi, Professor of International Economic Law, The University of Manchester, Manchester.

Aleka Sheppard, Professor & Founding Director, London Shipping Law Centre, University College, London.

Jeff Waincymer, Professor of International Trade Law, Faculty of Law, Monash University, Melbourne.

Jayashree Watal, Counsellor, Intellectual Property Division, World Trade Organization, Geneva.

Acknowledgment

The editors would like to express their gratitude to all the people and institutions who have contributed to and worked on this volume over the last four years. We thank those at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge especially Professors James Crawford and Marc Weller, as well as Anita Rutherford and Karen Fachechi, for constant hospitality and intellectual refuge. We also thank and recognize the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL), especially Hon Charles D Gonthier, Ashfaq Khalfan, Armand de Mestral, Richard Janda, Kamal Hossain, Kate Miles, Alexandra Harrington and Patrick Reynaud, for their support and inspiration, together with the International Development Law Organisation, especially Paul Crowley, Robert Buerghenthal, Tom McInerney and Maxine Kennet for their expert knowledge and practice, and the International Law Association, especially Nico Schrijver, Duncan French and Ximena Fuentes, for their expertise and inspiration. For all the support and inspiration, together with the International Development Law Organisation (IDLO) for the knowledge and practice, especially Paul Crowley, Robert Buerghenthal, Tom McInerney and Maxine Kennet, and the International Law Association. We appreciate the ideas and contributions of all those who participated in the Legal Experts Seminar at the Lauterpacht Centre in July 2008 at which much of this research was first presented. A special thanks goes to the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL) Legal Researchers Jarrod Hepburn, Gareth Price, Geraint Edwards, Lefteris Coroyannakis, Matthew Nied, Anna Johnston, Ashley Elliott, Robert Sutherland, Erin Callery, Simon Grant, Qumers Wejdan, Ania Zbyszewska, Claire Farmer, Mariella Montplaisir and Cody Olson for their helpful research, editing, and comments. Thanks are also due to other CISDL secretariat and research fellows who assisted with the project: Martin Endicott, Carlos Ivan Fuentes, Sylvia Trottier, and Arezou Farivar. Most importantly, we would like to recognize and thank Avidan Kent, whose hard work, excellent insights and years of patient coordination have made this project possible. We would like to also thank the organizations that have provided financial and other support for the project, including the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, the Law Foundation of Ontario, McGill University, the University of Ottawa, the University of Victoria and the University of Cambridge (Robinson College). The editors would also like to expressly thank Kluwer Law International, and especially, Louis Rolla and Lijntje Zandee, for their organizational assistance and support throughout this project.

Acknowledgment

List of Contributors

Editors

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger (International Development Law Organisation, Centre for International Sustainable Development Law)

Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger, MEM (Yale University), BCL, and LLB (McGill University), BA Hons is a international legal scholar in the field of sustainable development and currently leads the Environment and Sustainable Development Law Programme for the International Development Law Organisation. In an academic capacity, she serves as Director of the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL), as a Associate Fellow of the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law (LCIL) at Cambridge University, Faculty of Law, and as a Visiting Professor at the University of Chile, Faculty of Law. She has also served as Senior Director of Sustainable Prosperity, a green economy policy research network, on interchange from Canada's Ministry of Natural Resources, where she served on the Advisory Board of the International Trade and Investment Centre (Conference Board of Canada), on the Management Committee of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI) Trust Fund, and on the Board of the United Nation's International Panel on Sustainable Resource Management. Visiting Prof. Cordonier Segger also serves on the Board of the International Law Association (Canadian Branch), as an expert on the International Law Association (ILA) Committee on International Law on Sustainable Development, as a Councillor of the World Future Council, as a Fellow of the Royal Society of the Arts, and as Vice-President of the CD Gonthier Legacy Committee. In addition, she chairs a joint CISDL – ILA – IDLO Partnership on International Law for Sustainable Development from the 2002 World Summit for Sustainable Development. Selected publications include Sustainable Development Law: Principles, Practices and Prospects (Oxford University Press, 2004) with A. Khalfan; Sustainable Justice: Reconciling Economic, Social and Environmental Law (Martinus Nijhoff, 2004) with former Vice-President of the International Court of Justice, Judge C. G. Weeramantry; and Sustainable Development in World Trade Law (Kluwer Law International, 2005) with Prof. M. Gehring; she also edits the Cambridge University Press Series Implementing Treaties on Sustainable Development with Prof. M. Gehring.

List of Contributors

Markus Gehring (Cambridge University, University of Ottawa, CISDL)

Markus W. Gehring, LL.M. (Yale University), Dr. jur. (University of Hamburg), MA (University of Cambridge), is Lead Counsel for Trade, Investment and Competition Law with the Centre of International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL). He is Tutor in Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge and affiliated Lecturer in International and European Law at the Centre of International Studies, Department of Politics and International Studies (POLIS) and a Fellow in Law at Robinson College. Prof. Gehring has been a Visiting Professor at several universities around the world and is ad personam Jean Monnet Chair in Sustainable Development Law and Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law, Civil Law Section, at the University of Ottawa. He holds an MA from Cambridge University, an LL.M. from Yale University, and a DR. JUR. from the University of Hamburg. He is a member of the Frankfurt Bar and a former associate member of the Brussels Bar. He represented the CISDL at World Trade Organization Ministerial Conferences in Doha, Qatar; Cancun, Mexico; and Hong Kong, China; as well as at the World Summit on Sustainable Development in Johannesburg, South Africa and at various other international negotiations. He is a member of the International Law Association (ILA), German Branch, and serves on the ILA Committee on International Law on Sustainable Development. Prof. Gehring also serves on the Research Committee of the IUCN Academy for Environmental Law and as an instructor in international law at the International Development Law Organization. Selected publications include Sustainable Development in World Trade Law (Kluwer Law International, 2005) with M.-C. Cordonier Segger; World Trade Law in Practice (Globe, 2007) with J. Hepburn and M.-C. Cordonier Segger; and Sustainability through Process in World Trade Law (Duncker & Humblot, 2007); Prof. Gehring also edits the Cambridge University Press Series Implementing Treaties on Sustainable Development with M.-C. Cordonier Segger.

Andrew Newcombe (University of Victoria, CISDL)

Andrew Newcombe, BA(Hons) (King's College London), LL.B. (University of Victoria), LL.M. (University of Toronto), is Associate Professor in the Faculty of Law, University of Victoria, and a Legal Research Fellow of the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL). Prior to joining the Faculty in 2002, he articulated as a law student and practised as an associate with Swinton & Co. (now Miller Thomson) in Vancouver. After pursuing his LL.M., he worked with the International Arbitration and Public International Law groups at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Paris. Prof. Newcombe teaches in the areas of international economic law, international arbitration and commercial law. His research currently focuses on international investment and trade law, and international arbitration.

Prof. Newcombe created and maintains Investment Treaty Arbitration (ITA) (<<http://ita.law.uvic.ca>>), a leading international research website focused on international investment treaty law, practice, and dispute resolution. His book Law and Practice of Investment Treaties: Standards of Treatment (co-authored with Lluís Paradell) was published in 2009 by Kluwer Law International.

Contributors

Contributors of Prefaces

Prof. Hans Christian Bugge (University of Oslo, Faculty of Law)

Hans Christian Bugge is Professor of Environmental Law at the Department of Public and International Law, University of Oslo. He holds a doctorate in regional planning from the University of Paris II (Doctorat de spécialité) (1972) and a Dr Jur from Oslo University. Before he became an academic lawyer in 1991, Prof. Bugge held various senior positions as a civil servant in Norway's Ministry of the Environment from 1972 to 1982. He served as Deputy Director in the Department for Pollution Control, Director General of Norway's Pollution Control Authority, Director General of the Department for Urban and Regional Planning, and Deputy Director of the Planning Department in the Ministry of Finance. He has also worked extensively on development issues.

Mr Graham Coop (Energy Charter Secretariat)

Graham Coop is General Counsel to the Energy Charter Secretariat. Prior to this appointment, he was Head of the Energy and Natural Resources Group at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Paris, where he was based from 1992 until 2002, followed by two years as a partner with Denton Wilde Sapte's Energy and Infrastructure Department in London. He was a member of the legal team representing Bahrain in its territorial sovereignty and maritime delimitation dispute with Qatar in the International Court of Justice and received the Order of Bahrain as a result of his work on that dispute. In 1998 and 1999, he was seconded to lead the five-lawyer International Transport and Supply Contracts Division of the Legal Service of Gaz de France, the French gas utility. He has advised governments and international corporations on disputed sovereignty and maritime delimitation issues throughout the Middle East.

Prof. James Crawford (Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, Faculty of Law)

James Crawford SC, FBA, is Director of the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law at the University of Cambridge, Whewell Professor of International Law, and a Fellow of Jesus College. He was a Member of the United Nations International Law Commission from 1992 to 2001 and Special Rapporteur on State Responsibility (1997–2001). In addition to scholarly work on statehood, self-determination, collective rights, and international responsibility, he has appeared frequently before the International Court of Justice, including in the matter of the Advisory Opinions on Nuclear Weapons (1996) and the Israeli Wall/Barrier (2004). He has also appeared before other international tribunals and is actively engaged as an international arbitrator.

Prof. Ole Fauchald (Oslo University, Faculty of Law)

Ole Kristian Fauchald graduated as cand. jur. at the Law Faculty, University of Oslo, in 1991. He was awarded the degree of Dr jur by the Faculty for his thesis, 'Environmental Taxes and Trade Discrimination', published by Kluwer International in 1998. Thereafter, he worked as an adviser to the Norwegian Ministry of Environment for two years before returning to the Faculty. Since September of 2007, he has been employed full-time as professor at the Department for Public and International Law, University of Oslo. Currently, he also holds the position of Senior Research Fellow at the Fridtjof Nansen Institute.

Dr Charles Gbedemah (United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity Secretariat)

Charles Gbedemah is the Senior Environmental Affairs Officer for the Secretariat of the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity. Dr Gbedemah holds a Master's degree in Mycology from the University of Ghana. He was involved in biotechnology research at the national level for over twenty years. He was the sole negotiator for his country during the Protocol negotiations while leading the development of the Ghana National Biosafety Framework (NBF). Before joining the Secretariat of the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity, Dr Gbedemah had been the Regional Coordinator for the United Nations Environment Programme and the Global Environment Facility (UNEP/GEF) capacity building project since 2001 and assisted forty African countries to prepare their National Biosafety Frameworks.

Sir Chris Greenwood (International Court of Justice, The Hague)

Sir Christopher Greenwood, CMG, QC was elected to the International Court of Justice in 2008. He received the Companion of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George in 2002. Educated at Raeburn Park School, Singapore, and Well-ingborough School, United Kingdom, Prof. Greenwood studied law at Magdalene College, Cambridge, receiving a BA (1976), LLB (1977), and MA (1980). He then was a Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge (1978–1996), Fellow Commoner (1996–2009), and Honorary Fellow (2009). Prof. Greenwood served as Assistant Lecturer in Law (1981–1984) and Lecturer in Law (1984–1996), University of Cambridge; Professor of International Law, London School of Economics (1996–2009); Barrister, Middle Temple (1978); Queen's Counsel (1999); and Benchler, Middle Temple (2003). Sir Christopher Greenwood is a Member of the Panels of Arbitrators for the Law of the Sea Treaty and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes.

Dr Gavan Griffith (Essex Court Chambers)

Gavan Griffith, QC has practised as a barrister in all Australian jurisdictions and the English Bar and elsewhere since 1963, including extensive appearances and matters in the fields of public and private international law. He was Solicitor-General of Australia for fourteen years between 1984 and 1997. Since returning to private practice in 1998, he has practised as counsel and as an international arbitrator, based in both Australia and London. In particular, he keeps rooms at Essex Court Chambers and practises as a London-based arbitrator for English- and European-seated disputes.

Dr Kamal Hossain (International Law Association)

Kamal Hossain is a practicing barrister, and much of his work involves international law, constitutional law, and human rights. He served the Government of Bangladesh as Minister of Law (1972–1973), Foreign Affairs (1973–1975), and Petroleum and Minerals (1974–1975). More recently, he has been the UN Special Rapporteur on Afghanistan (1998–2003) and is currently a Member of the UN Compensation Commission. At present, he is Chairman, of the Advisory Council, Transparency International; Vice-Chairman of the International Law Association; and Chairman of the Bangladesh Institute of Law and International Affairs and the Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust.

Ms Meg Kinnear (International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes)

Meg Kinnear was named as Secretary General of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) in 2009. Prior to her election to this position, Ms Kinnear was General Counsel (Senior General Counsel from 2006) and Director General of the Trade Law Bureau of Canada. In November 2002, Ms Kinnear was also named Chair of the Negotiating Group on Dispute Settlement for the Free Trade of the Americas Agreement. Ms Kinnear was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1984 and the Bar of the District of Columbia in 1982. She received a BA from Queen's University in 1978, an LLB from McGill University in 1981, and an LLM from the University of Virginia in 1982.

Mr Ashfaq Khalfan (CISDL; Oxford University, Faculty of Law; Amnesty International)

Ashfaq Khalfan is Acting Chair of the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law. He has co-authored several publications, including Sustainable Development Law: Principles, Practices and Prospects (OUP, 2004), with Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger. He has previously served as Coordinator of the Right to Water Programme at the Centre on Housing Rights and Evictions. Mr Khalfan has consulted for the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) and the German Technical Cooperation Agency (GTZ) on human rights and development related issues, and worked for the Canadian Federal Department of Justice, the Canadian Human Rights Commission, Law & Society Trust (Sri Lanka), and Kituo Cha Sheria (Legal Advice Centre, Kenya). He received degrees in political science and international development and in common and civil law from McGill University.

Prof. Martti Koskenniemi (University of Helsinki: Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, Faculty of Law)

Martti Koskenniemi is Academy Professor with the University of Helsinki. He is also Hauser Global Professor of Law at New York University School of Law. In 2008 and 2009, he was Arthur Goodhart Professor of Legal Science, University of Cambridge. Koskenniemi has been a member of the UN International Law Commission (2002–2006) and Judge at the Administrative Tribunal of the Asian Development Bank (1997–2002). In 1978 and 1994, he was a member of the Finnish Ministry for Foreign Affairs. He is a member of the Institut de droit international, and his research interests focus on the theory and history of international law.

Prof. Sir Eli Lauterpacht (Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, Faculty of Law)

Elihu Lauterpacht has had a distinguished career in international law, combining teaching and practice on an extensive scale. Called to the Bar in 1950, he became a QC in 1970 and has practised extensively before the International Court of Justice and other international jurisdictions, as well as before the English courts. He was an ad hoc judge in the Bosnia case before the International Court of Justice (ICJ), has been an arbitrator in NAFTA, ICSID, and other arbitrations, President of the East African Common Market Tribunal, and a member of the panel of commissioners of the UN Compensation Commission. He has presided over the World Bank and Asian Development Bank Administrative Tribunals, and the Eritrea-Ethiopia Boundary Commission. He is an Honorary Professor of International Law of Cambridge University and was, from 1984 to 1995, the first Director of the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law in Cambridge. He has written an extended biography of his father, Sir Hirsch Lauterpacht, to be published by the Cambridge University Press in October 2010. He has also been Editor of the International Law Reports since 1960, more recently in conjunction with Sir Christopher Greenwood.

Prof. Vaughan Lowe (University of Oxford, Faculty of Law)

Vaughan Lowe QC is the Chichele Professor of Public International Law and a Fellow of All Souls College at the University of Oxford. He practises as a barrister from Essex Court Chambers, London.

Prof. Christopher McCrudden (University of Oxford, Faculty of Law)

Christopher McCrudden Christopher McCrudden is Professor of Human Rights Law at the University of Oxford; a Fellow and tutor in law at Lincoln College, Oxford; a practising barrister-at-law (Gray's Inn), and a William W. Cook Global Law Professor at University of Michigan Law School. Specializing in human rights, he concentrates on issues of equality and discrimination as well as the relationship between international economic law and human rights. At the University of Michigan Law School, Professor McCrudden teaches in the areas of international, European, and comparative human rights. He serves on the European Commission's Expert Network on the Application of the Gender Equality

List of Contributors

Directives and is a scientific director of the European Commission's network of experts on nondiscrimination. Professor McCrudden holds an LLB from Queen's University, Belfast; an LLM from Yale; and a DPhil. from Oxford University. In addition, Queen's University, Belfast, awarded him an honorary LLD in 2006. He was elected a Fellow of the British Academy in 2008.

Prof. Campbell McLachlan (Victoria University of Wellington, Faculty of Law)

Campbell McLachlan QC is Professor of Law, specializing in international law and dispute resolution. After earning his LLB at Victoria University, Prof. Campbell studied in Europe and then practised law as a partner in the firm of Herbert Smith, and as Head of its International Law Practice Group, until his return to New Zealand in 2003. Prof. McLachlan is President of the Australian and New Zealand Society of International Law, an Arbitrator for the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes, and a Member of the International Chamber of Commerce Court of Arbitration. He is a Specialist Editor for the fourteenth edition of Dicey, Morris and Collins on the Conflict of Laws (2006), the leading text on Private International Law in the common law world, and is responsible in particular for the chapter on Arbitration.

Prof. Donald McRae (University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law)

Donald McRae holds the Hyman Soloway Chair in Business and Trade Law at the University of Ottawa and is a former Dean of the Common Law Section. He was formerly Professor and Associate Dean at the Faculty of Law at the University of British Columbia. He specializes in the field of international law and has been an Advisor to the Department of External Affairs of the Government of Canada and Counsel for Canada in several international fisheries and boundary arbitrations. Prof. McRae has been chair and member of dispute settlement panels under the Canada – US Free Trade Agreement, the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), the US – Israel Free Trade Agreement, and the World Trade Organization (WTO). Prof. McRae has also chaired and been a member of investment dispute settlement tribunals. He is a member of the United Nations International Law Commission.

Prof. Armand de Mestral (McGill University, Faculty of Law)

Armand de Mestral CM teaches international law, international trade law, and the law of the European Union at McGill University, Faculty of Law. His current research interest is international trade and investment agreements. Prof. deMestral has prepared books, articles, and studies in English and French on international trade law and on Canadian comparative and constitutional law and international law. He has served on WTO and NAFTA dispute settlement and arbitration tribunals. He served as president of the Canadian Red Cross Society from 1999 to 2001. He was made member of the Order of Canada in December 2007.

Prof. Peter Muchlinski (University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies, Faculty of Law and Social Sciences)

Peter Muchlinski is Professor of International Commercial Law at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London. Prior to joining SOAS, he was Professor of Law and International Business at Kent Law School, University of Kent (2001–2005). Prof. Muchlinski specializes in international and European business law, competition law, law and development and commercial regulation, in which fields he has authored numerous papers and articles. He acts as a principal adviser to the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) on investment issues. During the period of June to October 2003 he was on leave of absence from Kent Law School and worked at UNCTAD in Geneva as a Senior Legal Expert in the Division on Investment Technology and Enterprise Development.

Prof. Francisco Orrego-Vicuña (University of Chile, Faculty of Law)

Francisco Orrego-Vicuña is Professor of Law at the University of Chile and has been the co-director of the Joint LLM Program with the University of Heidelberg, which specializes in international law, international trade, investment, and arbitration. He has been a member of the Court of the LCIA and its Vice President. He is an arbitrator at 20 Essex Street Chambers in London. Prof. Orrego-Vicuña has been the President of numerous arbitration tribunals under the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), and the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) rules, as well as a judge and former President of the World Bank Administrative Tribunal. He has also been a member of a dispute settlement panel in the World Trade Organization. Prof. Orrego-Vicuña has extensively published in international dispute settlement and other central questions of international law.

Mr Jan Paulsson (Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer)

Jan Paulsson is co-head of the international arbitration and public international law practices of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. He has acted as counsel or arbitrator in hundreds of international arbitrations. He has conducted cases under the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), and the American Arbitration Association (AAA) Rules, as well as before the International Court of Justice. He is currently President of the London Court of International Arbitration, the World Bank Administrative Tribunal. He holds the Michael Klein Distinguished Scholar Chair at the University of Miami and is Centennial Professor at the London School of Economics. Among numerous publications, he is author of Denial of Justice in International Law (2005) and co-author of the leading commentary International Chamber of Commerce Arbitration (3rd edition, 2000).

Mr Antonio Parra (International Council for Commercial Arbitration (Honorary Secretary General))

Mr Antonio Parra was previously with the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes for over fifteen years, serving successively as Senior Counsel, Legal Adviser and Deputy Secretary-General. Mr Parra's earlier positions include Senior Counsel and Counsel, World Bank; and Assistant Legal Counsel, Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) Fund for International Development.

Dr Karl P. Sauvant (Vale Columbia Center on Sustainable International Investment)

Dr Karl P. Sauvant is the Founding Executive Director of the Vale Columbia Center on Sustainable International Investment. He is a Senior Research Scholar and Lecturer in Law at Columbia Law School, Co-director of the Millennium Cities Initiative, and Guest Professor at Nankai University, China. Until July 2005, he was Director of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development's (UNCTAD's) Division on Investment, Technology and Enterprise Development. In 1991, while at the UN, he created the prestigious annual World Investment Report, of which he was the lead author until 2004. Apart from his work for the UN, he has published widely on issues related to economic development, foreign direct investment (FDI) and services. His name is associated with a great number of United Nations publications on FDI over the three decades of service in the UN.

Prof. Christoph Schreuer (Of Counsel, Wolf Theiss)

Christoph Schreuer is Of Counsel at Wolf Theiss in Vienna. He is a graduate of the Universities of Vienna, Cambridge, and Yale. Over an academic career spanning more than forty years, he has published numerous articles and several books in the field of international law. He has covered such diverse areas as human rights, adjudication by national and international courts and tribunals, sovereign immunity, the law of international organizations, the sources of international law, and the future of sovereignty. Prof. Schreuer has spent most of his academic career at the Department of International Law of the University of Salzburg, Austria. From 1992 to 2000 he was the Edward B. Burling Professor of International Law and Organization at the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) of the Johns Hopkins University in Washington, DC. From October 2000 to September 2009 he was Professor of International Law at the University of Vienna, Austria.

Prof. Nico Schrijver (Leiden University, Faculty of Law)

Nico Schrijver is Chair of Public International Law at Leiden University and Academic Director at the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies, Leiden University/Campus, The Hague. He is also Visiting Professor on Europe and North-South Relations at the Université libre de Bruxelles; President of the Netherlands Society of International Law; Member of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences (since 2008); Member of the Permanent Court