The Author

A Swedish national, Ms Lena Peters grew up in Italy where she attended an English school. In 1978 she took her Juris Kandidatexamen at Stockholm University, followed by a Master of Laws from King's College, London (1979). Since 1985 she has been with the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law, more commonly known as UNIDROIT, first as Research Officer and then as Senior Officer. From 1986 to 1994 she was Secretary to the Working Group for the Preparation of Principles of International Commercial Contracts, from 1994 to 2000 Secretary to the Study Group on Franchising and from 2001 to 2002 Secretary to the Committee of Governmental Experts on Franchising. Currently she is working on the project on Third Party Liability for Global Navigation Satellite Sysyem (GNSS) Services, as well as on the setting up of a data base on Uniform Law (UNILAW). She is also Joint Editor-in-Chief of the Uniform Law Review (from January 2011).

This monograph draws upon UNIDROIT documents and publications, both electronic and paper-based. The author wishes to express her thanks to the organization for permission to quote and draw from UNIDROIT materials.
