The Authors

Søren Sandfeld Jakobsen, Ph.D., is an associate professor at the Law Department of Copenhagen Business School. His primary research areas cover Media, IT and Communications Law, on which subjects he has published a number of books, articles, reports, etc. His Ph.D. dissertation (2004) concerned the legal aspects of the growing media convergence. He also works as an attorney-at-law within his research areas. He has previously worked as a lawyer and manager in the central government.

Sten Schaumburg-Müller, dr. jur. & Ph.D., is a professor at the Law School of Aarhus University, Department of Jurisprudence. His main research areas cover Media Law, Human Rights (Law) and Legal Philosophy, in which areas he has published extensively, although mainly in Danish. He was an attorney-at-law for eleven years, Women's Human Rights Advisor in Zambia for two years until he joined the Law School in 2000.
