The Foundations of Public Law

For Paula

Acknowledgements

This book is the product of nearly two decades of reading, researching and teaching public law and British politics. Fading memory and limited space preclude me from thanking all of those whose writings, words of personal encouragement or sheer enthusiasm for the subject matter may have influenced me during that period, but I should particularly like to acknowledge Rodney Barker, Danny Nicol, Tony Prosser, Mike Radford and Andy Thomas for the inspiration which they have offered at various times. Special thanks are also due to Paula Giliker, Phil Syrpis, and three anonymous reviewers for their comments on sections of this book and to Rob Gibson at Palgrave Macmillan for his invaluable assistance and patience. Finally, I owe an enormous debt of gratitude to my family for the support and love without which this project would never have come to fruition.

I intend to provide brief updates on constitutional developments on an annual basis, in or around September each year. These updates will be available on the book's companion website at www.palgrave.com/law/syrett.

The law is stated as at 1 January 2011.
