Acknowledgements

This work is an expansion of my Ph.D. thesis submitted in 2006 to the University of London. I would therefore like first to express my profound gratitude to Professor Ian F. Fletcher (UCL) who was my Ph.D. supervisor. His expert guidance has been invaluable, and I can still always rely on his vast knowledge and advice.

Other people have also played a part in the conception and realization of this book. Particular thanks go to those who read and commented on drafts of the book: Dr. Sandra Frisby, Professor Paul Torremans, Professor James Fawcett, Professor Harry Rajak, Professor Jay Westbrook, and Professor Phillip Blumberg. I owe a special debt to Professor Niamh Maloney for her all-round encouragement and support. I am also grateful for research assistance to Stuart Stock and Natalie Eliades.

Other people assisted me indirectly by giving their support or kindly sharing their views with me on multinational groups in insolvency. In particular I would like to thank Catherine Burton, Christine McCreath, Suzan Johnston, Ralph Mabey, Bruce Leonard, Neil Cooper, Ron Harmer, Mahesh Uttamchandani, Dr Dalia Even-Lahav and my colleagues at Lipa Meir & Co.

Finally, I owe much to Carmel, Roni and Amit for their unconditional support and patience during the time I spent working on this book. Roni's message on the white board above my desk—"Mummy I hope you write well in the book"—has been a great comfort in time of need.
