Competition Law of the United States

*To Barbara Jaffe

The Author

Howard Langer is the senior partner of Langer Grogan & Diver, P.C., a litigation firm specializing in antitrust law, located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He is also adjunct professor of law at the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania where he teaches antitrust law. He has been a visiting fellow at the Centre for Competition Law and Policy at the University at Oxford. Born November 28, 1950 in New York, Mr. Langer obtained his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1977. He is member of the American Law Institute.

Mr. Langer acknowledges the assistance of his colleagues, Robert LaRocca and John Grogan, who reviewed the drafts of this work and provided much needed editorial assistance. He also would be remiss in not acknowledging the important work of his student, Jonathan Mincer, who reviewed the manuscripts and took the initial laboring oar in drafting the sections on the procedures of the Federal Trade Commission and Concentrations. Finally, and most of all, he acknowledges the special efforts of his assistant, Gina Gossett, who undertook to prepare the manuscript for publication. Without her help and sharp eye, this, like most of his professional efforts, would certainly never have been completed.
